NEW ROAD AHEAD

An Ex-Boxer's Big Day

By GILES BIXLER

"If I still had my sight, I could probably get a job with Sonny Liston. I understand he needs some sparring partners."

These were the words of a man who finds it difficult, if not impossible, to admit defeat: Archie Smith, 54, of Seattle, who is to be graduated tomorrow from Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., in San Rafael with his new partner, Garth, a young German Shepherd.

Smith spent many years in the ring despite almost total blindness in his right eye, which he tried to keep a secret. He worked as a sparring partner for Joe Louis, Jersey Joe Walcott, and Ezzard Charles at different times.

"Nobody in the ring today could beat Cassius Clay," said Archie, "and I doubt if Louis could have. Clay fights with everything. Louis depended on one thing, his punch," said Smith, who is a big man, weighing 246 pounds today, about 25 to 35 pounds over his fighting weight.

"The only way Clay could lose is if he forgets to be afraid of Liston."

But Archie Smith's mind is not often on boxing these days, because for the first time in more than two years, since he lost the sight in his other eye, he has a future to think about.

"I'm pretty sure this dog is going to bring me back into society. My wife will be able to stop working, she's been working for 10 years, and I hope I'll be able to be the man of my home now."

The Smiths' three children have lived in New Orleans since their father was beaten by three men in Seattle and taken to the hospital, and he has tried to keep his blindness from them.

But Garth has given him confidence.

"I trust this dog with my life. I couldn't have a greater companion. In fact, I should have got this dog a long time ago."

When he got out of the hospital after the beating, Smith said "I was afraid to even walk down the stairs. But worse, I was afraid of people. You know, that's what blind people worry about: not themselves, but what other people think of them."

At the Seattle School for the Blind, Smith got over his fear of blindness and learned some skills which he hopes will get him a job when he returns next week.

"I can operate a drill press and work with electrical appliances. I've been offered a job rewinding motors. I learned all this since I lost my sight," said the ex-fighter, "and now with Garth, I'll be able to get around by myself."

He quit the ring for good about 1950, and went to work in a Seattle steel mill, where, he says, "I became the best and fastest 'chipper' in the state of Washington." A chipper is a man who cuts steel with an air gun.

Smith also worked as a crane operator, but this kind of job is not open to him now. For a while, in the hospital, he was pretty discouraged. "All I could think of was the quickest way out."

"But I had lots of time to think, and I started to pray. Prayin' led me to these things. It seemed like a new path opened up," said Smith. "I found out that when a person's blind it's not the end of the road."

Orioles Sign Cal Baseball Sensation

BALTIMORE (UPI)—The Baltimore Orioles raided the San Francisco Bay Area again yesterday to sign Mike Epstein of the University of California for a reported $50,000 bonus.

The big power hitter from Los Angeles had just returned from Japan where a team of U.S. amateur stars played a series of exhibition games. Epstein hit .371 on that tour after hitting .384 for the Bears. The 225-pound Epstein had 19 extra base hits in 53 hits for California.

Epstein was a promising fullback at California, but gave up spring football for baseball and then decided to give up football altogether.

Epstein's contract with the Orioles called for the club to finance the two remaining semesters at California that he needs for graduation. He is expected to work out at first base for Baltimore, although he played outfield for California.

Epstein leaves immediately for the Florida Winter Instructional League and will report to the Orioles for spring training.

The Orioles also have signed sensational pitcher Wally Bunker and pitcher Frank Bertaina from the Bay Area in recent years.

Warriors Vs. N.Y. Knicks Tonight

The San Francisco Warriors have a couple of plusses and a minus before the opening tossup tonight when they meet the New York Knickerbockers at the University of San Francisco Civic Auditorium in National Basketball Association action.

In their favor are the facts that big Wilt Chamberlain seems to be regaining his full strength and form after more than a month of idleness due to a pancreas inflammation. And, the Knicks have a record almost as bad as the Warriors'.

The minus is the questionable appearance of forward Tom Meschery, who painfully turned an ankle Wednesday night.

Chamberlain returned to the court last week. His first appearance was as weak as The Stilt himself appeared. However, on Wednesday night Chamberlain managed 37 points and 27 rebounds. He said following the game that he was ready to play again.

The Warriors enter the game with the Knicks with a 1-6 record and in the cellar in the NBA's Western Division.

The Knickerbockers were 2-5 going into the game and also in the cellar—in the Eastern Division.

Better Hurry; The Ocean Salmon Season Will Wind Up On Nov. 15

STEVENS

Not much time left to pull in that lunker salmon you've been hoping for. Nov. 15, the close of the salmon season in ocean waters, is only a week from Sunday. You can't tell — you might get in some fast and thrilling sport—if there happens to be a repeat of last Saturday's performance.

I wonder if perhaps the yield on Saturday, Oct. 31, isn't a record. At one harbor alone (Caruso's Sausalito place) there were actually 209 limits of salmon taken north of the Gate. That number included eight or nine fish weighing 35 pounds or more (Schenleys). Most of you know Sunday was a washout on account of bad weather and rough water, but on Monday a few fish were landed in spite of adverse conditions.

TUESDAY WAS not much better than Monday as far as limit catchers are concerned. On Tuesday four Schenleys were boated, and several "smokers" of 20 to 30 pounds came in. A large number of boats went out on Wednesday. Here's hoping some boat relocates the schools of salmon we all know are there.

A few private cruisers went out of Caruso's place for a shot at stripers. Good to excellent returns were had from the Yellow Bluff area as well as Racoon Strait.

No question but what salmon trolling by sports fishermen is now established as one of the best areas in the world. In case you figure that is a hyperbole, consider the record. So far this year there have been 645 fish 35 pounds or over registered and that figure does not include many salmon taken on private boats and not recorded.

SPEAKING OF striper striving at present, I am happy to report that prospects look fairly good for the immediate future. As I mentioned, lots of bass have been taken in the S.F. Bay spots, and China Camp reported a lack of fishermen but no lack of fish in the fairly deep water straight out from the China Camp landing. Mrs. Quan reported on Tuesday A.M. a goodly number of stripers to 16 pounds were taken, mostly on sardine bait.

Joe Navarro of Sportsmen's Center told me the Carpenters local, headed by Bob Queen, will run two bass derbies this Sunday and a week later. Registry and weighing in will be at the Union Hall in Hayward. Lots of luck to them, they have picked pretty good days.

So that's it for today. Goodbye, good luck and go get 'em!

Bobby Jones Plans To Leave The Hospital

ATLANTA (AP) — Bobby Jones, one of the most famous golfers in the sport's history, planned today to leave the hospital where he has been treated for three fractured ribs suffered in a fall at his home.

Jones is confined to a wheel chair. He suffered the fall as he wheeled himself to his television set and attempted to move his chair back.

Jones said he was doing fine. "I don't feel anything at all. It's very minor."

One of Jones' friends, former President Dwight Eisenhower, who is vacationing at Augusta, called Jones shortly after his accident. Jones said Eisenhower told him, "Don't take a deep breath. Don't cough. Don't sneeze."

Tuesday, Eisenhower fell and suffered a painful side injury. He was taken to Ft. Gordon Hospital near Augusta for treatment, then released.

Technology May Mean More Men

CHICAGO (AP)—A medical educator says technology may create a new shortage to mankind—women.

If infant mortality rates could be decreased, Dr. Sheldon Berger said, a shortage of women throughout the world might result.

The ironic reason, Dr. Berger said, is that the male adult is evidently less fit for survival than the female.

Dr. Berger, associate director of Evanston Hospital's Department of Research and Education, said Wednesday that his assumption is not science fiction.

He said that, generally, 106 males are born for every 100 females.

At age 30, Berger said, the ratio is evened at 100 to 100 because males generally die at an earlier age than females. After age 30, he said, the figure rapidly drops as males die and females live to an older age.

Berger said a "world shortage of marriageable females could happen tomorrow, depending on research, or take 100 years."

PROBLEM SOLVERS

Ideas For Holiday Baking

And the season for holiday baking is upon us, according to Virginia Porter, Marin County home adviser. Each year about this time calls are received concerning holiday recipes. Perhaps these questions and answers will help solve the problems.

May I substitute honey for the corn syrup called for in my fruit cake recipe?

Yes, honey may be substituted for corn syrup. In fact, honey, molasses and corn syrup may be used interchangeably. Molasses and dark corn syrup will be slightly stronger in flavor than honey and light corn syrup.

My fruit cakes sometimes stick to the pans and break. How can I prevent this?

Fruit cake pans should be very well greased. For extra precaution you might try using liner-papers. They are made of heavy brown paper or a heavy waxed paper. Cut the liners to come above the edges of the pans—at least ¾ inch. Use these extensions in lifting the cakes from the pans. Fit paper snugly into corners so that folds will not stick into the batter and mark the crust on the corners. To eliminate some of the folds we find it easiest to use one strip of paper lengthwise of the pan and another the breadth of the pan.

For round pans many strips of paper work well. For a tube pan, cut a piece of paper funnel-shaped and fit it around the tube. Or grease the tube extra heavily and omit the paper.

My recipe calls for a list of candied fruits and peels. Can I substitute the mixed candied fruits and peels?

Yes. Use approximately the same total weights as the individual fruits and peels. Use light colored fruits for a light or white fruit cake.

To save time I would like to run the nuts through a food chopper. Will this be satisfactory for my fruit cakes?

Chop or slice nuts if they not used whole or in halves. Do not run them through a food chopper . . . they will be crushed and the oil will be released from them.

Are there some tricks to baking fruit cakes? I have difficulty —some are too brown, others not baked as well as we like them.

Fruit cakes are baked at very low temperatures—usually 250°F or 275°F.

The time for baking depends on the size of the loaf, the pan used, etc. In general, a 1-pound loaf will take from 2½ to 3 hours to bake. Add ½ hour baking time per pound of batter, i. e., 3 hours for 2 pounds of batter; 4 hours for 3 pounds, etc.

What is the proper storage for fruit cakes? Mine always seem dry.

Some people "mellow" their fruit cakes for a week or two or three before storing them. The cakes are placed in a covered metal box or covered casseroles and a sweet dessert wine or brandy is poured over the cakes at intervals.

Others prefer to wrap the cakes in cheesecloth which is saturated with wine or brandy.

Wine is satisfactory for mellowing the cakes, but because of its lower alcoholic content the wine is not as effective in preventing drying out of cakes in long storage.

Cakes wrapped in brandy or treated with brandy at intervals are said to keep well for many months.

of space is the new trend. Space to construct your favorite house plan—space for the perfect patio for entertaining—space for a noisy play yard for the kids — and, most of all, vistas of space through redwoods and oaks. We can show you 2 lots in Larkspur's Chevy Chase area, each of which has this type of space—and a great deal of it level! Yet your home would be only 3 minutes from transportation, education and purchasing.

Foes Hammering Away At 3-Area Tam Unification

Segregation, Cost, Control Some Of Hot Issues Argued

By JEFF GREER

Few "friends" and many "foes" spoke up at last night's hearing on proposed three-district unification of the Tamalpais High School District.

Arguments swirled around issues of segregation, estimated costs, quality of education and local control, as the County Committee on School District Organization met in Redwood High School for the second of three public hearings on the unification plan.

Few Redwood High parents spoke up, but the county committee heard from officials of the Tamalpais district, Reed, Fairfax and elementary districts, the League of Women Voters, and the Tamalpais District Teachers Assn., among others.

As in the first hearing Wednesday night in Sir Francis Drake High School, county committee members themselves differed on whether the Tam district should be split into three areas, centered on the existing high schools, and unified with local elementary districts.

Third round of the hearings will come Monday at 8 p.m. at Tamalpais High. After that the committee hopes to decide on a plan to submit to the state board of education.

FOR DECISION

Committee chairman Earl Marshall said the proposed timetable calls for a decision at the group's meeting Nov. 18, to be followed by a hearing before the state board of education probably in January. If the state board approves the three-way split, it would be put to the district's voters before July, Marshall said.

Tamalpais district board member Edmund J. Thomas Jr. of San Anselmo repeated his earlier charge that the public has "not been getting answers to your questions" from the county committee, and stressed the issue of "what it will cost to de-unify into three districts."

In the present Tamalpais district "you have one of the finest high school districts in the nation," he asserted.

BUDGET PROBLEMS

He extensively explored budget problems, challenging tax rate estimates for the three-way split, and drew sparks from Reed Elementary School District spokesmen in opining that Tiburon Peninsula schools would be getting an unfair share of funds if the plan were approved.

"The League of Women Voters in Marin concludes that this plan is inadequate," declared Mrs. William C. Anderson, president of the league's central Marin unit. "Though the community is growing, the districts formed would be small, we would create inequities in wealth and ethnic groupings, fragment an excellent high school pro-

'Streamlined' Incorporation Law Is Urged

Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission members want the laws governing annexations and incorporations "streamlined."

That was the consensus last night as commissioners pored over Marin proposals for revisions to Local Agency Formation Commission law and state proposals for procedural changes and new powers for commissions.

Marin will present its suggested legislation and its views on the state proposals to the Assembly Committee on Municipal and County Governments next Friday when one of three committee hearings scheduled in the state is held at the Marin Civic Center. The hearing will run from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., with a two-hour lunch break. The exact time for Marin's presentation has not yet been announced.

Marin's commissioners last night approved most of the state recommendations, including a proposal that Local Agency Formation Commissions have the power to initiate annexation to cities or districts, and another giving commissions an enforcement device for their decisions. They eliminated about half of

New Soviet leader Leonid I. Brezhnev (center foreground) addresses Kremlin Congress gathering today. In front row (from left) are Ion Gheorghe Maurer, Rumanion premier; Premier Todor Zhivkov of Bulgaria; Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai; new Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin, and Walter Urbricht, first party secretary of East Germany. Others are not identified. Brezhnev called for unity of the Communist world at a jubilee session of the congress marking the 47th anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution.

Fishermen Fear Crab Industry On Way Out

Poor Season Seen; State Action Urged

By BRUCE COLEMAN

"As went the sardines, so are going the crabs."

"Unless the State Fish and Game Department and State Legislature do something about the number of gear used, the crabs will disappear."

These observations were made today by Cass Gidley, Sausalito retail and wholesale fish merchant who has been in the fishing business 26 years and fished crabs 20 years.

"I own 250 pots, $7,000 yorth of crab gear," said Gidley. "I'm not using it because it doesn't pay to put them out. I would be willing to use 50 or 100 pots for a two-man boat in order that a man could make a good living."

Sausalito crab fishermen are to go out Monday and will start pulling their pots up early Tuesday, opening day of the crab fishing season. Fishermen will come from Point Arena in the north to Half Moon Bay in the south, said Gidley, "and there will be so many crab traps out there you will hardly be able to get a boat through the water.

"The crabs can't stand up under that condition. You can't keep taking out and never putting back."

Gidley agrees with the State Fish and Game Department's prediction of another disaster-type crab season, and says the price—which has not yet been settled between dealers and fishermen—will be "high enough to put a steaming hot crab in the caviar and champagne category."

"That is proper company for our crabs on the basis of flavor and protein, but it is nice to dream of the good old days when you could get three for a dollar," he remarked.

Fishermen advance many reasons for the decline. The area has been over-fished; increased numbers of striped bass forage the outside sea and at times feed on baby crabs; a terrific storm five years ago scoured the bottom with such savagery that water depths were changed in some areas by 60 feet or more along 1,000 miles of coast, thus destroying sedentary types of crab food.

Scientists generally disagree with fishermen, Gidley said,

Contract For Expansion Of I-J Awarded

Mid-State Construction Co. of San Francisco yesterday was awarded a $378,000 contract for an addition to the Independent-Journal plant at Fifth Avenue and B Street in San Rafael, publisher Roy A. Brown announced.

The addition will be in two sections, one housing a new fully automatic 84-page printing press, the other for expansion of other facilities.

The press section will extend 80 feet behind the existing building along Fifth Avenue and will be 30 feet wide. The press will be about two stories high. The press section will also have a basement to house the press foundations and what is called the "reel room" where the huge rolls of newsprint are attached to the press.

The second section of the building will be three stories high and 60 by 37 feet wide. The first floor will be used for newsprint storage. The second floor will become an extension of the composing room, where type is set and page forms made up for the newspaper. The third floor will house mechanical equip-

LOUIS H. BURKE
Republican appointed

New Justice To Supreme Court Named

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown announced today the appointment of Justice Louis H. Burke to the California Supreme Court.

Justice Burke, 59, who is presiding justice of the fourth division of the Second District Court of Appeal in Los Angeles, will fill a vacancy created by the retirement of Chief Justice Phil Gibson. Justice Burke is a Republican.

In announcing the appointment, Governor Brown said, "I looked all over the state to find a man with the necessary qualifications of experience, humility and great talent. I have found this man in Justice Burke."

Brown continued: "I made my selection not on party affiliation but on ability. With the addition of Justice Burke, there are now two Republicans and five Democrats on the Supreme Court."

Justice Burke is a native of Montebello.

Divider Post Injures Two

Two passengers in a southbound automobile were injured last night when a rubber center divider post flew through the windshield of a car about mid-span on the Golden Gate Bridge.

Treated for facial cuts at French Hospital, San Francisco, were Frances Younce, 64, 644 Sausalito Boulevard, Sausalito, and Ann Ward, 43, of 26 Curry Lane, Sausalito. They were passengers in a car driven by Mrs. Younce's husband, Jamieson E. Younce, 62.

The California Highway Patrol said the divider post was apparently hit by an unknown northbound car.

New Soviet Leader Jolts China's Chou

MOSCOW (UPI)—New Communist Party leader Leonid I. Brezhnev, in a double jolt to visiting Chinese Communist Premier Chou En-lai, today hailed the election of President Lyndon B. Johnson and restated a tough policy toward Peking.

Chou sat slumped and unsmiling as Brezhnev made his first major policy speech since toppling Nikita Khrushchev on Oct. 14. Chou applauded at first but his enthusiasm tapered off noticeably as Brezhnev scorned the hard anti-West line Peking demands as the price for peace.

Only today, the Peking People's Daily, official organ of the Chinese Communist Party, demanded the Kremlin end its policy of peaceful co-existence with the United States as the price of peace.

Brezhnev told a cheering Kremlin audience of 6,000 Russian and visiting Communist leaders: "The American elections recently showed a majority of Americans cherish peace and are tired of the cold war."

Dean Burch Willing To Remain On Job

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Dean Burch said today that he would remain as chairman of the Republican National Committee as long as the party wants him.

In a statement, Burch said he would call a meeting of the national committee after the first of the year for a discussion of questions of interest to the party — including his chairmanship.

Help Form 'Medicare,' Marin Medics Urged

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

A labor union leader told Marin County doctors last night that government medicine is on its way and it is up to their profession to play a constructive role in formulating the legislation.

Members of the Marin Medical Society and their wives gave Louis Goldblatt of Mill Valley, secretary-treasurer of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, polite applause at the end of his presentation. But the questions they fired at him showed plainly that many were not ready to accept his premise.

"Medicare in some form or other will probably pass in this next session of Congress," declared the ILWU leader, who was educated for the teaching profession, turned to the warehouseman's trade in depression 1934 and became the union's na-

Absentee Votes Do Not Change Election Outcome

Absentee votes did not change the outcome of the election of the new school board for the unified Novato-San Jose School District as incorrectly reported in yesterday's Independent-Journal.

Through a reporter's error in addition of absentee votes it appeared that William H. Kirk had been knocked out of seventh place by William G. Schneeflock. Kirk polled a total of 4,488 votes instead of the 4,088 incorrectly reported yesterday.

The correct tally, including absentee, is Daniel H. Barber, 5,444; Mrs. Jean Ansley, 5,085; Mrs. Leonora M. Dougherty, 5,031; William Vandergriff, 4,998; Gordon Leathers, 4,546; Marett B. Bossevain, 4,507; Kirk, 4,488; Schneeflock, 4,420; James Swenson, 4,370, and Alan M. Swabacker, 4,226. The first seven were elected.

The Independent-Journal deeply regrets the embarrassment the error caused the candidates.

Leathers, Boissevain and Kirk apparently will have to run for election again next April. Douglas J. Maloney, county counsel, today said this is what the law requires "literally," but he does not feel it is the intent of the law.

"I am going to get an opinion from the attorney general to see if there is some other way," he said today.

European Travel 'Out' For Johnson

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson wants to meet with the leaders of NATO countries, the White House said today, but is not even discussing possible European travel at this time.

Malcolm Kilduff, acting White House press secretary, told reporters that no travel involving Johnson or Vice President-elect Hubert H. Humphrey "is presently contemplated or in the offing."

Barry On Trip To Washington

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI) — Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, appearing nonchalant and rested, climbed aboard his silver, three-jet campaign plane today for what could be his final trip to Washington, D.C., as a government official.

Less than a dozen persons, other than newsmen and photographers, were at the west terminal of Sky Harbor Airport when Goldwater and his wife, Peggy, arrived to board the chartered plane which flew the senator more than 80,000 miles before election day.

The Goldwaters planned a short stopover in Washington to be followed by a post-election vacation—probably in the Caribbean.

Johnson, Wilson Plan Meeting

LONDON (UPI)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson has written to President Lyndon B. Johnson to arrange a personal meeting in Washington in January, government sources say.

The summit meeting has been approved in principle by the two Western leaders.

The date of the conference and its scope are being arranged in direct correspondence between 10 Downing Street and the White House, the sources said.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Military Man Sole Bolivia Leader

LA PAZ, Bolivia (UPI)—Lt. Gen. Rene Barrientos took sole charge of Bolivia's new military junta government last night with a pledge to hold "democratic elections . . . in the least possible time."

Barrientos

A crowd of about 20,000 persons massed in Murrillo Square roared its approval of Barrientos' announcement that he was taking over the junta. Many of those present literally danced for joy.

Barrientos and Maj. Gen. Alfredo Ovando were co-presidents of the junta for a short time but Ovando was booed and hissed by a crowd, incensed because of the protection that troops under his command provided for ousted ex-president Victor Paz Estenssoro when he fled to Peru Wednesday.

Paz

"He (Ovando) let Paz escape," the crowd chanted.

Barrientos, who was Paz's vice president, masterminded the revolution that overthrew the president this week from his headquarters in Cochabamba, Bolivia's second city.

At least 40 persons were killed and about 150 wounded here Wednesday when soldiers and airmen supporting the revolution mopped up armed peasant supporters of the Paz regime.

Nuclear Blast Burns 20-Story Cave

LAS VEGAS (AP)—A nuclear blast has burned out a huge cave 1,320 feet underground in a test of new ways to get at oil and mineral deposits. The cave is big enough to hold a 20-story building.

A 20-foot-high spurt of dust, kicked up by the jolt, was seen over the Nevada Test Site yesterday, but Atomic Energy Commission scientists said no radioactive material escaped.

The scientists expected the blast, equivalent to 10,000 tons of TNT, to create a cavity up to 230 feet in diameter but said it would be several days before exploratory holes are drilled into this bubble.

Johnson Taking It Easy On Ranch

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Lyndon B. Johnson had a relaxed, non-appointments schedule today at his ranch home near here.

Aides said there were no plans for the president to see any government officials during the day nor to make any appearances outside the ranch property.

The president has given no hint of how long he will remain in Texas. However, the impression has grown that he may stay another 10 days.

Explosion In Rome

ROME (UPI)—A gas main exploded today, tearing a 200-square foot hole in the pavement of Rome's busy Via Trionfale and panicking passers-by. One woman was injured by a flying stone.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Robert F. Kennedy, U.S. senator-elect from New York, visited the grave of his brother, president John F. Kennedy, yesterday.

A nationwide harvest of 141.2 million bushels of apples is expected for 1964 by the Agriculture Department. This is 13 per cent greater than the 1963 crop.

Peron Prediction

BUENOS AIRES (UPI) — The newspaper La Razon predicted today that ousted ex-president Juan D. Peron will arrive soon in Uruguay as a "tourist" to direct a campaign of agitation against the Argentine government.

GOP Finance Aide Resigns

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Republican National Finance Committee Chairman Ralph J. Cordiner has become the first member of the Goldwater-Miller team to leave after their election defeat.

The resignation of Cordiner, a former board chairman of General Electric, was not unexpected. A Republican National Committee spokesman said he had agreed to serve only through the election.

Cordiner took on the job shortly after the GOP National Convention last July. He is credited with raising more than 11 million dollars for the party's campaign.

U.S. Readies New Mars Shot After Failure

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — The United States thwarted by a freak mishap in its first attempt to explore Mars, today readied another Mariner probe for the same picture-taking mission.

At Turin, Italy, the country's largest private monitoring center said today it had recorded radio signals indicating a new Soviet space launch.

(It speculated that the Russians may have placed a satellite in a parking orbit around the earth as a base for a Mars launch.)

Mariner-3 died late last night, about nine hours after launch, despite the last-ditch efforts of a team of scientists to revive the complex, 575-pound spacecraft.

The ship's twin, Mariner-4, sits atop another Atlas-Agena rocket ready for launch expected within two weeks.

The ill-fated probe, designed to take 22 pictures of Mars and help lead the way for future space ship landings, now is speeding into orbit around the sun to become a lifeless space derelict.

Project chief Jack N. James early today blamed Mariner's failure on a protective cover that apparently hung up on the space craft instead of being thrown clear during early stages of flight.

He explained that the cover, which shields the delicate Mariner during launch, prevented the ship's vital solar panel from unfolding to recharge its overstrained battery with energy from the sun.

GOP's Struggle Out In The Open

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon has fired at Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller as a "spoilsport" and been called "peevish" in return as the fight for control of the Republican Party breaks into the open. But like former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, they appealed for unity.

The party struggle—essentially an effort by moderates to wrest control from Goldwater conservatives—had been pretty much off-stage until yesterday. But then, at a news conference in New York, Nixon spoke up.

The former vice president, who campaigned widely for Barry Goldwater, said Rockefeller, who was cool to the Arizonan's campaign, "got his pound of flesh."

The New York governor, said Nixon, was the "principal divider" of the Goldwater campaign. And, Nixon continued, the party's future rests with "unifiers rather than dividers."

Rockefeller is vacationing in Spain, but a spokesman in New York released a statement calling Nixon's remarks a "peevish, post-election utterance."

Said the New York governor, a member of his party's liberal wing: "This is a time for constructive rebuilding of the Republican party as a vital force in the mainstream of American political life. Mr. Nixon's latest maneuver is hardly calculated ot advance this effort."

In Atlanta, Ga., where he was on a golfing vacation, Eisenhower called for a period of consultation among party leaders to discuss the GOP image—an image which Eisenhower said "has confused so many of our citizens and led them to think of it as a political doctrine designed primarily for the rich and privileged."

Henceforth, Eisenhower said, the GOP must represent a wide spectrum of political thinking.

As for Nixon, Eisenhower described his vice president as a man "of great ability and great astuteness who would play a great part in unifying the party."

Two Glenns Step In As Chaplain Leaves

HONOLULU (AP)—When Fleet Marine Force Pacific Catholic chaplain J. E. Ryan left for a tour of the Far East, he named Chaplain John J. Glynn and Chaplain John J. Glynn to relieve him.

One of the Glynns is a Navy lieutenant stationed at Pearl Harbor; the other is an Army major at Tripler Army Hospital. They aren't related.

Pope Attends Mission Meet

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Pope Paul VI presided for the first time today over a working session of the Ecumenical Council to dramatize "the seriousness of the missionary activity of the church."

The Pope normally monitors debates among the 2,200 bishops and higher prelates in St. Peter's Basilica on closed circuit television. But today's session dealt with the question of missionary work, and the Pope appeared in person.

In a brief Latin homily, the Pope underscored his own planned visit to a Eucharistic Congress in Bombay, India, next month. He has called himself a "missionary pope" and said the council's consideration of questions on the missions would give "a new path and new stimulation to mission work."

MARIN COUNTY'S FESTIVAL THEATRE
THE CRITICS WRITE:

"SPIRITED 'THOUSAND CLOWNS'"
By STANLEY EICHELBAUM, S.F. Examiner

Eliminating hidden probabilities, I would say that the Festival Theatre's recent bid for permanence in San Anselmo stands an excellent chance.

I base this opinion on the wholesome and reassuring dexterity of the troupe's current production, "A Thousand Clowns," the first play in a new and continuous season that will last through next summer.

Elizabeth Berryhill's company, which I have previously admired for its thoroughgoing professionalism, now has a hearty and irresistible winner in Herb Gardner's compact little comedy, being presented in San Anselmo on Wednesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights.

BEST ACTING

It has been staged with glowing affection by Elizabeth Fuller. And Gardner's somersaults of humor are brightened by some of the best acting to come out of a resident theater.

Judging from the explosions of laughter the night I saw "A Thousand Clowns," the production should flourish. And if you haven't yet seen the comedy, then I certainly think the Festival Theatre's fresh and enjoyable staging will lift your spirits.

"FESTIVAL THEATRE'S SMASH HIT"
By MEL WAX, S.F. Chronicle

The Festival Theatre has an absolute smash hit for its first play of the season, Herb Gardner's very funny and surprisingly poignant "A Thousand Clowns."

I was completely captivated by it when it was given at the San Francisco Theological Seminary, in San Anselmo.

Elizabeth Fuller, a Festival Theatre regular, directed, and milked the play magnificently for all the belly laughs, the snickers and warmth of the story of a man's wacky fight to avoid being just one more voice in the crowd.

"LAUGHTER SPILLS OVER 'A THOUSAND CLOWNS'"
By KARL BARRON, Independent-Journal

Like the little car in the circus whose door opens and out come "A Thousand Clowns," the play of the same name burst onto the Festival Theatre Stage in San Anselmo this weekend.

Five Festival stalwarts, and a talented 13-year-old rollicking commentary on modern man's condition—a night of continual laughs—interspersed with some serious thought . . .

If you like having lots of laughter spilled on you, don't miss "A Thousand Clowns."

Rights, TV, Rail Measures To Become Law December

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Initiative measures involving civil rights, pay television and railroad train crews — all approved by California voters Tuesday —will become effective in early December barring court delays.

The state attorney general's office said today proposed approved constitutional amendments which are on the ballot by the initiative route take effect five days after the certification of votes.

Asst. Secretary of State Walter C. Stutler said the election certification is expected about Dec. 1.

The other successful propositions which were placed before the voters by the legislature will be effective on the day of certification.

The initiative measures are Proposition 14, which erases state and local laws banning discrimination in housing; Proposition 15, declaring pay television against the public interest, and Proposition 17, repealing the state law requiring firemen on diesel freight trains.

Fred Gunsky of Mill Valley, information officer for the Fair Employment Practice Commission in San Francisco, said the agency had stopped accepting formal complaints on housing discrimination

"The FEPC, however, is still taking information in this field," Gunsky added.

Seventy-eight cases are pending before the FEPC. The study of some cases are continuing, Gunsky said, but admitted there was no way now to enforce a future FEPC ruling.

The commission will meet next Monday and Tuesday in Los Angeles to receive legal advice on how to proceed.

Southern Pacific Railroad said Wednesday it would lay off about 400 firemen before the end of the year because Proposition 17 passed.

Those dismissed will be permitted to apply for other railroad jobs. Firemen with one to two years of experience will get severance pay equal to 90 days pay, about $2,000.

The railroad said the other 1,700 firemen in the state will be divided into two groups. Those with two to 10 years will remain firemen until offered other railroad jobs at comparable pay. Those with more than 10 years time will remain firemen until they are promoted, retire or resign.

Court tests are expected on Propositions 14 and 15.

Opponents of Proposition 14 claim the measure is unconstitutional. Owners of a pay television company now operating in California vowed a legal fight to stay in business.

Rail Pay Hike Is Recommended

WASHINGTON (AP) — A presidential emergency board recommended yesterday that some 27,000 firemen, hostlers and helpers on approximately 160 railroads receive a two-year wage increase totaling 18 cents an hour.

President Lyndon B. Johnson appointed the board to head off a rail strike threatened in a dispute between the railroads and the AFL-CIO Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen.

A wage increase of $1.75 per day, instead of the hourly increase, was recommended.

Airman From Marin Is Injured In Crash

Airman Edward Jeff Garrison of Corte Madera was critically injured Sunday when his sports car went off a road near Las Cruces, N. M., and overturned, pinning him beneath it.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Garrison of 8 Echo Avenue, Corte Madera, returned to Marin yesterday after visiting their son, who is recovering from multiple skull fractures in an El Paso, Tex., hospital.

"The doctor told us yesterday morning that he was doing very well," Mrs. Garrison said.

Young Garrison, a 1963 graduate of Redwood High School, has been in the Air Force about a year. He was stationed at Holloman Air Force Base, N.M., when the accident happened.

CRABS

claiming that 50 years of statistics indicate that crab production has always been up and down like a yo-yo.

Richard L. Poole, crab researcher for the fish and game department at Menlo Park, says Gidley, has said he does not know the reason for crab production decline along the Pacific Coast nor when fishing will recover.

"The crab industry has been treated like an ugly, unwanted orphan by government agencies —except for keeping of landing records for the purpose of collecting taxes," Gidley charged.

He said only a fraction of time and money that has been spent on salmon research and and the absence of remedies to propagation has been applied to the California crab fishery.

"Many of us believe that the scientific neglect of the crab fishery is being reflected now by the ill health of the fishery. I feel there is a relationship between the scientific neglect save our sick industry," he continued.

He said he and others in the industry, boat owners and processors alike, have been unable to persuade state authorities to divert large funds to crab fishery marine research.

"It seems that those who wish to preserve fishery resources for amusement rather than for food are in charge of such disbursements," Gidley declared.

"This is too much like preserving deer while letting our buffalo go for their hides. It seems to me we should learn somewhere along the line how necessary it is to preserve an important food resource, such as crabs, in a hungry, overpopulated world."

Gidley said he started on 25-ton sardine boats out of Monterey and then they went to 200 tons. "We had a couple of sharp declines in sardine production and they never came back."

In 1939 he started fishing crab when 15 pots was adequate. Now the boats use 100 to 300 pots. Calling the crab decline "catastrophic" in California, he cited tha the southern area, San Francisco, produced 1.2 million pounds last year where once it produced five million and one year nine million pounds. The decline in production in the Eureka area was even more drastic, last season's production being only 800,000 pounds, he said.

Humphrey Off For Holiday

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Vice President-elect Hubert H. Humphrey and his family flew to the Virgin Islands today for a two-week vacation — to "unwind" from the election campaign rigors.

Humphrey, who normally makes himself readily available to reporters, unexpectedly went out of his way to avoid newsmen at Dulles Airport.

Instead of coming to the main airport terminal, where newsmen had gathered, Humphrey and his family drove straight to the plane departure area.

Siamese Cat, 16 Wanders Away

Grandson Injured

Edward Lopez, 5, of 215 Terrace Avenue, San Rafael, who was injured Wednesday when a gum and candy stand fell on him at the Purity Store in the Montecito Shopping Center on Third Street in San Rafael, is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Valenta, not Valenta's stepson as was incorrectly reported to the Independent-Journal yesterday.

Town Turns Out On Run To Fight Fire

Townspeople of Stinson Beach turned out on the run yesterday to fight a brush fire on Belvedere Street in the highlands. Some used wet blankets and two women carried buckets of water to douse the blaze.

"I don't know where the people came from, out of gopher holes, in back of trees, under rocks," said Harriet M. Greene, who said she drove fire fighters Louis De Ghelder and Bill Hoffman to the scene and along the way shouted to people to come and help fight fire.

The fire was started by Charles Volk, who was burning scraps of lumber behind a new home on Belvedere. Three houses were threatened and more than an acre of brush and scrub oaks were burned.

From now on all locations will be inspected thoroughly before burning permits are given, said Thomas R. Tawns, Stinson Beach Fire Protection District commissioner who issued the permit to Volk.

The fire started about 10:50 a.m. and was quelled at 11:30 a.m. Homes threatened were those of Jack Dearth, directly behind the fire, Harry Ellis and George Cronemeyer. The new home was not endangered since the wind was blowing past it, Tawns reported. If the fire had not been controlled quickly, it could easily have spread up the mountain to the state park, he said.

Twelve volunteers turned out with the department's two trucks and 12 other persons fought the fire with anything they could lay hands on, said Mrs. Greene.

Union Goes On Strike Against Ford

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union struck today against key Ford Motor Co. manufacturing and assembly plants over unsettled local labor agreements.

At least eight out of 11 unsettled units were struck.

The walkout left Ford with a selling supply of about 32 days of autos and a 38-selling-days supply of trucks.

The effect on production could not immediately be detailed, but indications were Ford could make some autos for two weeks or more.

A Ford spokesman said assembly plants were struck this morning at Dallas; Wayne, Mich., truck; Wayne, autos; Chicago, stamping; Ypsilanti, Mich., manufacturing; Sheffield, Ala., manufacturing; Sterling Twp., Mich., manufacturing, and Louisville, assembly.

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — Sen. Pierre Salinger, who was defeated in Tuesday's election, has been offered the post of president of the National Assn. of Broadcasters, Sherwood Gordon, his campaign chairman for this county, disclosed today.

Gordon said Salinger has not confirmed whether he will accept the offer but has confirmed he plans to remain in California.

gram, and add nothing to community cohesiveness."

She charged that the three-way split would contradict state instructions not to propose unified districts which would isolate an ethnic group.

John Cook of Tiburon, Redwood High business education teacher and president of the Tamalpais District Teachers Assn., declared, "We feel the ethnic question is a very serious one and cannot be glossed over." He said his group opposes the three-way split not only because of the Marin City problem, but also because present district-wide services in training mentally retarded and handicapped children would suffer.

He challenged Reed District trustee Leo T. Souza's pro-split claim of better local control. "I think in many cases, 'local control' is nothing but meddling in the affairs of the school," declared Cook.

He said the Tam teachers want to go back to the one large unified district proposal—which was defeated last June.

Souza, who joined county committee member David D. Ring, a fellow Reed District trustee, in favoring the three-way split, called for better cost estimates from the county committee.

He called for use of outside consultants to prepare information, but county committee chairman Marshall said no funds were available for consultants, and that fund requests had been turned down by the county.

Reed trustee Marilyn C. Steinau declared, "I am opposed to the three-way split, and I am not alone on the Tiburon Peninsula."

Fairfax school board president Laurence G. Herman said, "I don't believe the three-way split is defensible unless it can provide a better education than one district. There is so much conflict in the statistics that I don't believe anybody can tell what they are."

Lagunitas resident Winifred C. Frederick urged the committee to "slow down" and obtain better financial figures.

County committee member Jack V. Mengel objected that "it rubs me the wrong way to hear that we're rushing things . . . We've had more roadblocks, more demands for figures. I think it's time we move ahead."

Robert Stannard of the county superintendent of schools office presented tax estimates slightly different from those discussed at Wednesday's hearing. If the split is approved, the tax rate per $100 assessed valuation is computed at $3.94 for the Tamalpais High area, $4.83 for Redwooy, $5.49 for Drake, he said.

Rights Group Has No Quorum

The Marin County Human Rights Commission, failing to get a quorum last night, considered changing the number required for a quorum.

Ten of the 23 commission members were present and the required quorum is 13, Wyman Hicks, executive secretary, said It was suggested that the quorum be reduced to seven. Commissioners will be polled by mail on the proposed quorum change, he said.

The commission is scheduled to meet Dec. 3 at 8 p.m. at the Marin Civic Center, when Dr. Richard S. Hann, chairman of the housing committee, will present a report on housing.

2 Homes, Auto Store Struck By Burglars

Burglaries of two homes and the A-1 Auto Parts were reported over the past day and one-half to Mill Valley police, with $570 taken in cash and household items.

Victor R. Anderson, manager of A-1 Auto Parts at 475 Miller Avenue, reported at 7:55 a.m. today that during the night someone entered through an open window at the rear of the building and stole $246 in cash found in a drawer near the cash register.

Col. William Mullin of 980 Lovell Avenue said at 6:30 p.m. yesterday that between 8:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. someone pried open the dining room door, ransacked the jewelry box on the dresser in the bedroom and stole a 35 mm. camera, valued at $250; a transistor radio, $30; a white rat bank containing $5 in change, $3 in currency and a bottle of whisky worth $5.

Reported yesterday by Robert Geering of 177 Hazel Avenue was theft of a $30 clock radio from his home between noon and 6 p.m. Entry, said Geering, was made by forcing screws out of a window on the sun porch, then reaching through the window to open the back door. Geering said dresser drawers were ransacked in the bedroom.

'Extended' Phones Time Limit Given

If "extended" telephone service between Novato and San Rafael is approved by the State Public Utilities Commission, it will take a year to a year and a half for it to be placed in operation, according to Ralph Bell of the PUC.

The PUC held a hearing yesterday at the Novato Community House on "extended service" between San Rafael exchanges and the Ignacio exchange of Western California Telephone Co.

Representatives of the two companies and Mayor Robert D. Carrow of Novato presented the case for the extended service, which would eliminate toll calls between the exchanges. Approximately 250 residents attended the meeting.

Now the companies must file legal briefs with the PUC, Bell said. After these have been received, F. Everett Emerson, examiner for the PUC, will prepare a written report, which usually takes about six weeks, Bell said.

Sleepy Hollow Judo Classes Are Protested

Objections to proposed children's judo classes in the Sleepy Hollow community center were raised at last night's regular meeting of the Sleepy Hollow Homes Assn., so the group's officers set a public hearing on the issue for Nov. 19.

The association is not actually sponsoring the proposed class, according to recording secretary Mrs. Terry Hauge, but had agreed to use of the center and had publicized the signups in the neighborhood bulletin.

Objectors declared last night that judo is not a proper sport for youngsters.

In other business, the association heard reports that work on the center's store room is moving slowly, and sounded a call for volunteer labor; that the swimming pool closed Oct. 28 and will reopen next Memorial Day, and that the teenage club's car wash planned for last Sunday was rained out but will probably be held this weekend.

Tiburon Arrest For Embezzlement

Lillian Henrietta Kaatz, 44, of 45 Redhill Circle Drive in Tiburon, was arrested yesterday by Marin County sheriff's officers on a felony warrant from Harris County, Tex., alleging embezzlement of over $50.

An indictment charges the woman, who moved to Tiburon only two months ago, took the money from a Donald Tomasco on or about Dec. 7, 1963, in the Texas county. She was held in Marin County jail in lieu of $1,100 pending arraignment at 1:30 p.m. next Thursday in Marin Superior Court.

Marin City Man's Condition Good

Lawrence Davis Jr., 28, of 22 Burgess Court, Marin City, was in good condition today at Marin General Hospital with internal injuries suffered in a traffic accident on Tiburon Boulevard Saturday.

A report of the accident in the Independent-Journal Tuesday incorrectly reported that he had been released from the hospital.

Publishers To Bolster Confidence

WINTERS (AP)—The California Newspaper Publishers Assn. has made a move to bolster reader confidence possibly impaired owing to right-wing or left-wing attacks on the news media.

Publisher Newton Wallace of Winters, president of the association, yesterday disclosed the newspaper group's plans.

The association's board of directors recently gave unanimous approval for a study committee report and recommendation to begin a long-range, statewide campaign "to help offset any abuse or vilification that tends to undermine the readers' confidence in their newspapers," Wallace said in a press statement.

"Members of the John Birch Society and other extreme right-wing groups have joined the long list of left-wing extremist groups which have, for at least a generation, vigorously and viciously attacked the integrity of the reporting in the press, have attempted to discredit and damage economically newspapers with which they disagree and have sought to bring into being more news media which will be subservient in reflecting their own prejudices," the committee report said.

Praising California papers for their editorial diversity, the committee declared, "There have been . . . organized campaigns conducted to discredit newspapers and news media in general, and certain newspapers in Califrornia have experienced intimidation tactics."

The board said the association would set up machinery to investigate specific cases of organized pressure or abuse brought to the attention of the association.

Speed Curb Is Proposed

Posting of Northern Avenue in Tamalpais Valley with a 25-mile speed limit was urged last night by Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club directors.

The board decided to request the county to install speed limit signs and to widen Pine Hill Road to permit two cars to pass, reported Midge Hamburg, president.

The board authorized a letter to county supervisor Peter H. Behr asking for road tax break-down to see how the valley compares to other county areas, and agreed to ask Marin Municipal Water District to install larger water pipes on Northern Avenue.

It was agreed that there will be no children's Christmas party this year but there will be an adult party at the Dec. 3 meeting at the Community Church.

Sanitary Revisions

San Rafael Sanitation District directors approved revisions in the district accounting system at their meeting yesterday. County Auditor - Controller Michael Mitchell presented the changes, aimed at permitting more use of the county's electronic computing equipment.

$155,100 In Damage Suits Filed

Five personal injury damage suits totaling $155,100 were filed by a San Rafael lawyer in Marin Superior Court today.

Attorney T. G. Fitzgerald is seeking $50,000 for Donald E. Bachman, 252 Calle de la Selva, Novato, in a Nov. 8, 1963, traffic accident on Highway 101 near the Alto overcrossing.

Bachman alleges Max George Blum, 1317 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, was negligent, causing the two-vehicle collision and injuring Bachman's right leg.

The other suits are: Morland L. Turk, 126 Floribel Avenue, San Anselmo, is asking $25,000 from Thelma Ilene Porter, 225 Nova Albion Way, San Rafael, in a two-vehicle collision May 14 on Spring Grove Road near Greenfield Avenue in San Rafael.

Turk alleges the defendant was negligent in driving and he suffered back injuries as a result.

William E. Linn, 256 Calle de la Selva, Novato, is seeking $50,000 for injuries allegedly suffered when his vehicle was struck by one driven by Charles Harold Waldron, Berkeley, on Highway 101 in San Rafael last Aug. 14. Linn also alleges negligence.

Alice Cheda, 1628 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, alleges that John F. Ferrera, of Ross, owner of property at 840 Third Street in San Rafael, was negligent in maintenance of a sidewalk at that address. She charges she fell June 18 as result of the careless upkeep and suffered $25,000 damage in right ankle and left knee injuries.

Vincent J. Frank and his son, Richard, 20, both of 408 Pine Street, Tamalpais Valley, are suing Harold Matscheck, 598 Northern Avenue, Mill Valley, for $5,100 for injuries allegedly suffered by the son in a two-vehicle collision June 13 on Shoreline Highway in Mill Valley.

Negligent driving by Matscheck is alleged.

Woman Injured; Hit By Truck

Maria Theresa Arroba, 33, of San Francisco suffered a head injury at 4.08 p.m. yesterday when she was struck by a City of San Rafael dump truck while walking across Irwin Street at Fourth Street.

She was taken to San Rafael General Hospital for observation and was to be transferred today to a San Francisco hospital.

San Rafael police cited the truck driver, Charles Bentivenga, 51, of 2000 Redwood Highway, San Rafael, for failure to yield the right of way to a pedestrian. The city driver was making a left turn into Irwin Street. He said he did not see the pedestrian.

The woman lost her balance, stepped backward several feet and fell, hitting her head against the curbing, police said.

Tiburon Nominating Chairman Is Named

EXPANSION FOR INDEPENDENT-JOURNAL Drawing by architects Gromme and Priestley shows how Fifth Avenue side of Independent-Journal plant is expected to look with completion of expansion project which will house high-speed 84-page newspaper press, newsprint storage facilities and expansion of mechanical departments of the newspaper. Contract for the building was awarded yesterday to Mid-State Construction Co., of San Francisco. Press is already being built by R. Hoe and Co., a leading manufacturer of newspaper printing equipment.

Mill Valleyan Safe IN Plane Mishap

Probably anyone who emerges unscathed from an airplane mishap would be happy, but James A. Walker of 110 Country Club Drive, Mill Valley, sounded positively enthusiastic about his experience last night at San Francisco International Airport.

He was one of 87 passengers and seven crew members on a United Air Lines flight from Seattle that made a spectacular, spark-illuminated landing after the Boeing jet's nosewheel refused to lower.

"No one panicked," Walker reported in the airport lounge. "The passengers were great; the crew was wonderful!"

All 94 occupants of the crippled jet scrambled safely to the ground within 60 seconds after the airliner halted its mile-long skid. Fire crews, ambulances, sheriff's deputies and coroner's deputies alerted to stand by, proved un-needed.

Pilot Virgil W. Vaughan, 56, of Denver, said the crew knew immediately after takeoff from Seattle that the nose wheel was misbehaving. With visibility bad at Seattle, and more than 40,000 pounds of fuel aboard, the veteran pilot decided to go on to San Francisco; there was also a chance that the wheel could be shaken loose on the way.

The plane circled 40 minutes over San Francisco to burn additional fuel and give emergency crews time to prepare. Only during this time did Vaughn alert the passengers as to what was wrong.

The big plane settled, tail-low, at 110 miles an hour, then eased onto its nose. Sparks from the runway's grinding away the open nose-wheel housing doors flew high and wide, scaring waiting friends and family of the flight's passengers.

Adhesive bandages fixed the few scratches reported.

Contract Is Awarded For Expansion Of I-J

ment, a heating boiler, and ventilating and air conditioning equipment.

The addition will be of steel-frame construction with walls and floors of reinforced concrete. Although connected to the present building, it will actually be a self-enclosed structure, partly for earthquake protection, and partly because the equipment housed in the addition will be so heavy.

Carl F. Gromme and Ralph B. Priestley of San Rafael are architects for the project.

The exterior of the present building along Fifth Avenue will be remodeled to harmonize with the B Street side of the building and the addition will have the same type of exterior as well.

Installation of the new press will begin before the addition is complete, since the building, the press and the electrical system are all closely integrated.

The huge press, being built for the I-J by R. Hoe and Co., one of the world's largest makers of newspaper presses, will not go into operation overnight once construction and installation are complete, since a period of adjustment is always necessary.

Once in operation, however, the new press will be capable of producing 70,000 complete newspapers an hour. It consists of five units and is capable of printing in color on any page.

The addition will use more than 100 tons of steel and 1,500 cubic yards of reinformed concrete.

Two Women Talk Selves Into Jail

San Rafael police early today tried their best to talk two women out of going to jail, but the women won the argument.

Officer Kenneth Homen spotted a car stopped in Second Street at 5:45 a.m. One woman was sitting on the curbing while another waited behind the wheel.

Upon seeing the officer's car, the woman on the curb got into the car, and it drove west along Second. Homen followed and saw the auto go through a stop sign. He stopped the car and wrote a traffic citation for the driver, Terrie Elizabeth Ellerman, 36, of 124 Tunstead Avenue, San Anselmo.

She refused to sign the citation. Homen decided he would need help and called for Officer David Jones. By the time Jones arrived, the woman was insisting that she be arrested rather than sign the citation.

Her companion, Chirleen Malmquist, 21, also of 124 Tunstead Avenue, said she wanted to be arrested, too.

Miss Ellerman was handcuffed and placed in the patrol car. She was able to slip her right hand out of the handcuffs and had to be forcibly rehandcuffed. She was booked for refusing to sign a citation and resisting an officer. Miss Malmquist was booked for interferring with an officer in the discharge of his duties.

She reportedly continued to get in the way as she made her demand to be arrested.

Drunken Drivers Get $166 Fines

Sherman Joe Lucas, 29, of 78 Novato Street, San Rafael, and Frederick Leroy Cartwright, 57, of San Francisco, were each fined $166 in Marin Municipal Court yesterday for drunken driving.

Lucas was arrested Oct. 13 by San Rafael police on Canal Street. Cartwright was arrested Oct. 31 on Highway 101 by California Highway Patrol.

Sheriff Gets Theft Reports

Burglaries of two residences in county areas were reported today by sheriff's officers.

Harold G. MacKenzie, 491 Wilson Avenue, Novato, told officers yesterday that his home was entered—apparently via an unlocked bedroom door—sometime during the past two weeks and a pair of boots, $18 cash, and seven books of merchandise stamps were taken.

George W. Langdon, Napa, said his weekend cabin on Panoramic Highway in the Mountain Home vicinity was entered, also over the past two weeks, and a mattress, ice chest, pruning shears and fire grates were taken. Entry was by breaking a bathroom window, deputies said.

Underground Utilities Unit Forms

The nucleus of what is hoped to be a county-wide committee studying underground placement of utilities was formed last night in Tiburon.

The committee hopes to study the financial, legal, technical and aesthetic aspects of placing overhead utility lines underground. Another meeting of the group is scheduled for 8 p.m. Nov. 19 at the Tiburon city offices, 1610 Tiburon Boulevard, City Councilman John S. Hoffmire Jr. reported.

Hoffmire organized the first meeting as he is the council representative assigned to study a franchise requested by Pacific Gas and Electric Co. The request came to the recently incorporated city in June, with the city council holding off a decision in hope of gaining an agreement with the company to place at least some present or future utility lines underground.

Others at the meeting were Mrs. Walter E. Olson of Fairfax, chairman of the Fairfax Citizens Master Plan Study Committee; Tiburon Councilmen Fred C. Hannahs, and Anne L. Ellinwood, and Stephen H. Nash, chairman of the Tiburon Planning Commission.

Boy Chasing Toy Hit By Cycle

A Woodacre boy chasing a model airplane was injured slightly when he was hit by a motorcycle at 4:20 p.m. yesterday in front of his home.

David Mark Jensen, 5, of 227 Railroad Avenue, was treated for a bruised foot at Marin general hospital. The California Highway Patrol reported he had run into the street after the model, as neighbors shouted at him to stay back.

John T. Teters, 16, of Resaca Avenue, Forest Knolls, riding east, saw the boy, locked his brakes and was almost at a stop when his motorcycle struck the boy's foot.

Formation Commission Wants Annexation Laws 'Streamlined'

the Marin suggestions for changes.

John F. Barrows, commission executive officer, will present Marin's views to the Assembly committee. Barrows said he would describe to the committee the effort to merge Richardson Bay sanitary districts as an example of the problems the county was handling.

The state proposals discussed last night were drawn from suggestions from commissions across the state.

Barrows told the Marin commission the proposal for the power of initiation of annexation to cities or districts appeared desirable, as long as proper safeguards are provided. He noted that such an arrangement is included in the outline of the proposed District Reorganization Act of 1965.

The proposal giving commissions an enforcement device would require that all action following commission approval be done only in accordance with the commission's action. If any boundary change is made later, the proposal must be referred back to the commission. Barrows said this would be helpful if any local agency attempted to circumvent the decision of the commission.

Among the other state proposals approved by the Marin commission:

Dissolution of the County Boundary Commission and designation by the board of supervisors of a boundary engineer (probably the public works director) who would review boundaries for the Local Agency Formation Commission (this was one of the Marin proposals, too).

A procedural change aimed at eliminating inconsistencies between city annexation laws and requirements of the Local Agency Formation Commission law. It would establish a protection period beginning with the filing of the notice of intention which would continue until proceedings are completed. This would prohibit other cities from reaching for the same territory and thereby by complicating annexation proceedings.

A proposal to merge formation law with annexation law, resolving the minor differences.

A proposal that commissions have jurisdiction over withdrawals of territory from cities.

A proposal—paralleling a Marin suggestion — that commissions be allowed to make studies and surveys relating to local government structure.

The Marin commissioners expressed disapproval of a proposal that commissions have the power to approve annexations to cities that will result in the creation of corridors, islands or strips. Such annexations are now prohibited by other sections of the government code.

Barrows had recommended approval of the proposal, and said it would eliminate some rather unusual requirements in some annexations. He cited, as an example, the 200-foot strip which was excluded from the Fagundas Ranch annexation to San Rafael so that Terra Linda Community Services District would not be left an island.

The Marin commission also disapproved a proposal that commissions have the authority to overrule population requirements for incorporation and prohibitions against annexation to cities and districts of property not adjacent to them.

Commissioner Byron W. Leydecker said the whole matter of annexation and incorporation law ought to be revised. He called it "ridiculous" that a city cannot initiate annexation of inhabited territory.

Previously approved was a Marin proposal that would allow city councils and district boards to give informal prior approval of annexations which are being proposed by their city or district. The present prohibitions on such action, it was noted, have presented an awkward problem for city managers and other employees who hoped to proceed with proposed annexations but needed council confirmation.

In other business the Local Agency Formation Commission continued indefinitely the matter of Mill Valley's proposed annexation of 137 lowland acres.

The commission is under order of a writ from Marin Superior Court not to grant permission for the annexation. County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney will be authorized to defend the commission in the action, it was decided.

Leland H. Jordan, Mill Valley city attorney, reported the city intends to file a motion to set aside the writ.

The commission postponed to the night of Nov. 23 discussion of standards to guide it in acting on proposals before it.

It also decided to hold its future morning meetings at 8:15 instead of 8:45. A previously scheduled meeting for next Thursday will be at 8:45, however, because notices already have been sent to persons concerned.

Autos Run Amuck On Race Street

GLASGOW, Ky. (AP) — There was a rash of fender-benders on Race Street and not a driver in sight.

Police said the brakes on a late model car gave way and it started down the hill. The runaway crossed the street and hit a parked car. The second car hit a truck which in turn smacked another parked car.

CORE Meeting

The Coordinating Council for Racial Equality in Marin will meet at 8 p.m. Monday in a special session in the court house in San Rafael to discuss the next step in civil rights now that Proposition 14 has passed.

Synanon City Of 5,000 Forecast

A self-contained city of 5,000 on Tomales Bay was forecast today by Charles Dederich, chairman of the board of directors and founder of Synanon Foundation, Inc.

Synanon, which rehabilitates drug addicts, purchased the Marconi property at Marshall this summer. At that time Dederich staid there would be 500 in the rehabilitation program, there within a year.

Today's announcement came from New York, where Dederich is on a week-long visit, seeking financial support for Synanon's several treatment centers.

"I can have 3,000 addicts off the New York streets in 18 months," Dederich said.

He said "Synanon City" will consist of Synanon industries, dormitories for men and women, private residence complexes, houses for directors and sponsors, seminar buildings, lecture halls, and administration buildings and a library.

"We will have our own post-office, fire department and hospital. We won't need a police department, and we will be the only city in the country without a jail," Dederich declared.

"With this continually expanding community, we will take the incorrigibles, the addicts and the social misfits from the urban center of our countries and rebuild them in our society."

Synanon's purchase of the Marconi property gave it several buildings and 42 acres of land.

Dederich is due back in Marin Tuesday, bringing with him Vincent Staraci, a deputy president of one of New York's five boroughs.

The Synanon chief has been trying to persuade New York officials to contribute money to the foundation because many of the addicts under treatment by Synanon come from New York.

Chair Set Afire

An electric tea warmer set fire to an overstuffed chair at the home of Ray Cameron at 19 Shell Road, Alto, yesterday after a small child plugged in the warmer behind the chair. There was minor damage to the chair, according to Fire Chief Carl O. Heynen Jr.

Councilman Jensen Is Given Probation

Fred E. Jensen, San Rafael city councilman, was placed on two years supervised probation and fined $166 yesterday by Judge Leonard A. Thomas in Marin Municipal Court for the Sept. 3 revolver brandishing and malicious mischief in his ex-wife's home.

In addition, the 64-year-old Jensen was directed to continue psychiatric treatment, ordered not to leave the state or move from Marin County with probation office permission, denied any barbiturates during his probation period, and deprived of any weapons without probation office approval.

Judge Thomas declined the recommendation of Thomas T. Storer, deputy district attorney, that Jensen be given a 15-day jail sentence. The judge said he was instead closely following the recommendations of the probation department.

Thomas P. Boyd, attorney for Jensen, said the councilman already has been sufficiently punished by adverse publicity, his own remorse, and legal fees. He said community sympathy has been evident for Jensen since the violations and only main exceptions have been from "political hacks who are after his (Jensen's) hide."

Jensen had entered pleas of no contest to the two charges. The offenses occurred in the home of Jensen's former wife, Mrs. Juliet Bobo, at 211 California Street, San Rafael. He appeared in person yesterday for the sentencing.

Slowed, Auto Hit From Behind

A San Rafael couple were injured slightly at 3 p.m. yesterday when their car slowed at a curve and was hit from behind by a loaded dump truck and knocked into a stone retaining wall on Point San Pedro Road at the far eastern city limits of San Rafael.

Driver Margaret A. Haskin, 60, of 35 Billou Street, San Rafael, was treated at San Rafael General Hospital. Her husband, George Haskin, 70, complained of a sore neck, but was not treated att he hospital, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Driver of the truck, Joe Galentine, 39, of 742 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, said he was unable to stop when the Haskin car slowed almost to a stop on the curve as both vehicles were headed west.

61 Per Cent Of Crusade Goal Reached

Marin's United Crusade campaign total has climbed to $93,507, it was announced at a report luncheon yesterday in Scout Hall, San Rafael. This is 61 per cent of the county goal.

Leading the drive is the residential division, with a total of $37,753, or 69 per cent of quota. Other division standings are: Education, $8,137, or 64 per cent of goal; commerce and industry, $8,180, or 61 per cent; professional, $14,687, or 60 per cent; business, $17,164, or 52 per cent; public employees, $7,586, or 49 per cent.

Cited for increased giving, in addition to those previously announced, were:

College of Marin (education division), staff donations totaling $1,370, for a 278 per cent increase over last year; E. D. Bullarrd Co., Sausalito (commerce and industry division), employee and firm gifts totaling $2,618, a gain of 77 per cent; Heath Ceramics, Sausalito (business division), gifts up 146 per cent, and City of Sausalito (public employees division), employee donations up by $311.

In the residential division, three more areas have achieved over-goal status. They are Marin City, at 119 per cent of quota; East San Rafael, 108 per cent, and Santa Venetia, including San Rafael Meadows and Los Ranchitos, at 101 per cent.

Smaller sections in the residential division over quota include Glenwood (San Rafael), at 124 per cent, and Tiburon Peninsula, in the Southern Marin area, at 106 per cent.

The meeting was staged by the Marin County Boy Scout Council with members of the council as luncheon hosts. William P. Murray Jr., vice-president, presided. Speakers included Stephen D. Burke, county campaign chairman; Bert W. Broemmel, president of the Marin United Fund, and Raymond E. Baarts, executive director of the United Bay Area Crusade. Baarts reported that the five-county campaign now stands at 74.6 per cent of its 14-million-dollar goal.

Theft From House

Alfred Henderson, whose home at 219 Morningside Drive, Corte Madera, was swept by a $10,000 fire Oct. 16, reported a new loss yesterday to Corte Madera police. A thief entered the burned house, which cannot be locked, and took an electric drill and three hand saws. The loss was set at $35.

Government Medicine On Way, Doctors Told

tional secretary-treasurer in 1943.

He admitted frankly that it will be a "foot in the door" for other legislation toward a national health program.

"If ever a dialogue on the whole subject of medical care was essential, the time is right now," he told the dinner gathering at the Meadow Club above Fairfax.

"It would be most profitable . . . particularly for doctors, to engage in every type of forum, to see if there can be a meeting of the minds. That would be much better than doing what has been done before—holding screaming drills."

Declared Goldblatt:

"There is literally no way of convincing the average person that a society as wealthy as ours should not make good medical care available to every person when he needs it . . . and not in such a way it would destroy his life savings and he would have to be pauperized."

He equated this demand with that for such other protections as sewer systems, fire department, police department, public education, social security.

To the medical profession's contention that any government medical plan would do away with a person's right to choose his own doctor, Goldblatt countered by relating experiences of the ILWU with Kaiser Plan prepaid medical care. The union, he said, found "so-called free choice of doctor was something of a myth." Very few objected to lack of such choice under the Kaiser plan.

"We like the Chinese medical system . . . where you pay the doctor because you're well," said Goldblatt. He suggested a plan "where a doctor has a certain number of patients, and if he keeps them all well, he can do medical research or play left-handed golf or whatever he'd like."

The people favor a government pre-paid medical plan which would spread "catastrophic" medical costs of the few, with all paying the bill, he asserted.

"They know the product is there. They know you can supply it. . . . They don't want it under calamity circumstances. They want it as their way of life."

Many of the questions cited free service by doctors to the indigent and those whose finances are wiped out by calamity. Said Goldblatt: "I don't think physicians ought to be required to give their services without pay."

One raised the question of what percentage labor would pay for medical research, citing great costs of medical advances.

"Is anyone here going to say that these advances should be available only to those who can afford it?" shot back Goldblatt. "It seems to be that the more costly they are, all the more reason for some system of prepayment."

COLLEGE OF MARIN'S NEW COMPUTER

A new 1620 IBM computer is being used to train computer programmers and technicians at College of Marin in a two-year course on data processing. The machine is also being used to process student records. In the foreground Barbara Green of Corte Madera has finished writing coded instructions on a typewriter which feeds into the computer's "brain." Instructor Donald Griffin pushes a button for the result as Cary J. Carillo of Corte Madera looks on. GIGO stands for "Garbage In, Garbage Out," a reminder to students that the machine does only what it's told.

Viet Leaders Try To Avert New Crisis

SAIGON (UPI)—Government leaders sought to avert a new political crisis in South Vietnam today by attempting to persuade the acting chairman of the country's high national council to withdraw his resignation.

The acting chairman, Dr. Nguyen Xuan Chu, tendered his resignation to chief of state Phan Khac Suu yesterday in protest against the makeup of this embattled country's first civilian government in more than a year.

The council is South Vietnam's interim legislature. It was formed to write the country's new constitution and to guide it to a permanent civilian government.

But Chu said the council was not consulted on the new cabinet. He said he would rather quit the government than oppose it from within.

Special Training

Airman 2/c Carl W. Johnson, son of Mrs. Alice I. Johnson of San Anselmo, has completed a special course for communications technicians at Goodfellow Air Force Base, Tex., and been assigned to and Air Force support unit in Alaska.

Marin Girl Tells Of Hope Work Rewards

Hard work aboard the hospital ship Hope alternates with off-hours embassy receptions and parties on land, Nancy Mirata of Tiburon reports from Guinea, Africa.

She and 88 other doctors, nurses and technicians aboard the ship arrived in mid-October as the ship was tied up to the dock at Conakry, Republic of Guinea.

The ship is operated by private donations and carries facilities for surgery, intensive care, pediatrics, a dental laboratory and X-ray department to treat residents of the country which request the ship and teach the country's medical personnel.

Miss Mirata formerly was assistant chief radiological technologist at Mount Zion Hospital in San Francisco. On the Hope, she is showing Guinea technicians some of the latest techniques while X-raying their countrymen.

"The people are so friendly and warm-hearted," she wrote to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Mirata, 2305 Paradise Drive. "They would give you the shirt off their back, when in reality they have nothing.

"No matter where we go, we always attract a big crowd of kids and then the adults come over to see what the deal is. I let some of the kids ride my bike and they were having the time of their little lives."

The bikes taken from the United States aboard the ship "are the greatest invention since the airplane—really lets you get rid of some of that steam and when you get back (to the ship), the headache is gone and all the cobwebs cleaned out and we eat like loggers and sleep like dead people," wrote Miss Mirata.

The voyage to Africa was spent cleaning and again scrubbing the medical equipment aboard and learning French, Miss Mirata wrote. The ship will be at Conakry about a year.

"The city of Conakry is on a long narrow peninsula which juts out from the mainland of Guinea," she wrote. "We fortunately are docked at the end of this long peninsula and seem to pick up the cool sea breezes."

Describing the local girl with whom she works, Miss Mirata wrote:

"Even though I don't speak fluent French, we seem to be able to communicate some way. I'm in the process of learning her dialect . . . called Soo Soo.

"They try to speak English and we try to speak French. We've run into four dialects . . . we seem to survive with sign language."

Meeting Postponed

The Marin Federation of Improvement Clubs will not meet Monday as originally scheduled but will meet a week later, Nov. 16, at 8 p.m. at the courthouse in San Rafael.

My Friends:

You have been so truly wonderful to me over the years that it is difficult to put into words how deeply my wife and I cherish your loyalty.

I do want you, somehow, to know how proud I am over your trust during the long span of years—38. Even though out of office, I will be available to help in any way you think I can.

Thank you—

Sincerely

Bill Knowland

Quentin Inmate Honored For Heroism In Forest Fire

The State Board of Forestry has commended a 24-year-old inmate of San Quentin Prison for heroism.

Arthur R. Aceves received the letter of commendation in the prison hospital where he is still under treatment for burns he received while fighting a fire near Nice in Mendocino County Aug. 9.

He suffered second and third degree burns on 30 per cent of his body when he dashed into flames to save another fire fighter he believed was trapped. The other man, Foreman Daniel Kohler had already escaped the flames, but Aceves did not know this.

Aceves earlier received an award for heroism from the Santa Rosa Press Democrat.

This is the first of three meetings for the merchants of Novato, sponsored jointly by the Novato Chamber of Commerce and the Novato Police Department. The second will be on robbery, and the third on shoplifting, said police officer Otto Haiungs.

Traffic Deaths Smash Record

CHICAGO (UPI) — The nation's traffic death toll for the first nine months of the year smashed all previous records, the National Safety Council said today.

The council said 34,570 persons were killed in traffic accidents through September, compared to the previous nine-month record of 31,310 highway deaths set only last year. This year's toll was up 10 per cent.

The traffic death toll for the month of September also exceeded all previous records for the month. Highway accidents claimed 4,070 lives compared to the previous record 3,990 fatalities recorded in September 1963.

Lack Of Quorum

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Stinson Grand Hotel Ready To Take You Back In Time

Now open for business—and this will interest diners who like to combine a little scenic mileage with their meals—is the old Grand Hotel at Stinson Beach.

It has been somewhat remodeled, but just enough to make it functional without disturbing historic charm. (In days gone by it was the old Sea Beach Hotel.)

Robert E. Hargrove is the owner and chef. He was formerly chef, then manager, at Le Poulet Restaurant in San Francisco and has worked his way up through the ranks from pantryman—so he knows his food preparation.

His dinners are limited to a single entry on weekdays and on Sunday, and to two selections on Friday and Saturday. You'll have no reason to spend time over the menu before you decide what to eat.

But the fare is changed daily, and Hargrove adjusts his rotation period so there won't be repetitions within 30 or 60 days. Thus, if you should happen to go out tomorrow night you'll be fed vichyssoise or salade maison, roast leg of lamb with fresh minted peas (or New York steak) and potatoes mashed in cream. Sunday night: Shrimp bisque or salade maison, poulet farci, potato brioche, broiled tomato—and buche de Noel for dessert. Next Tuesday: Apple and raisin soup or salade maison, pasta and sweet basil, veal parmigiana, zucchini a la Romana and zabaglione for dessert —and so on.

Dinners are served from 6 to 10 p.m. and there's a Sunday brunch from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. In view of the revolving menu, it behooves you to phone ahead and inquire "what's cooking" and to make reservations, since the dining room (called the "Chandlery" for its unusual fixtures) can only seat about 70. Closed Mondays.

No liquor served. A beer and wine license is planned for about the first of the year.

Hotel accommodations consist of 15 rooms furnished in 19th century style, with iron bedsteads, pitchers and washbowls.

So far, owner Hargrove has made no big pitch for either tourist or central Marin trade. But that will probably come along anyway.

FULL LIQUOR LICENSE for Gregory's Restaurant on Paradise Drive, Corte Madera, has been approved, and this should please would-be patrons who may have held off their visit here because they can't seem to get started eating without a martini, in spite of good food.

Work has begun on the adjoining bar and lounge. This is not ready and may not be until Thanksgiving, but Gregory Seubert is having cocktail service in the dining room. New addition will also include a banquet and party room large enough to accommodate about 40 people.

He has something entirely different in mind for the decor in these sections. But he hasn't chosen a suitable name. Next time you drop by, let him tell you about it, and maybe you'll have a suggestion.

DE LA MONTANYA'S in San Geronimo pulled a sneak reopening about a week ago. Word has gotten around, and its dining room has not been patronized exclusively by the natives west of White's Hill.

Chec Joe Moyle's dinner menu here features three seafood dishes: abalone steak, shrimp Creole and crab Creole. Otherwise look for veal scallopini and parmigiana, prime rib, steaks, brochettes—chicken Solari (sauteed in olive oil and butter, simmered in a creamy-sherry-mushroom sauce)—and not often found braciuolini, which consists of beef slices stuffed with currants, salami and a few other ingredients, sauteed and simmered.

And as far as I know, De La Montanya's is the first restaurant in the county to feature on its California wine list exclusively the vintages of Sebastiani in Sonoma. Sebastiani was high among award winners at the California State Fair this year, and on De La Montanya's carte I counted five gold medal winners, one silver, two bronze awards and one Honorable Mention.

If you're not familiar with the location, it's about five miles west of Fairfax on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, just a little past the Nicasio Road intersection. It was formerly Villa Lucchesi.

Dinners served Tuesdays through Saturdays, 5 to 10 p.m., Sundays from 4 to 10. Closed Mondays. Bar open from noon.

CHEF ALFRED ROBLIN of Ondine is coming along nicely after his recent knee operation, we hear, but it may be a couple of weeks before he is back in his culinary domain fulltime. Good thing his staff is so capable and well trained.

CLARINETIST Darnell Howard and his group, formerly at Blue Rock Inn, opens tonight at the Embers in Corte Madera, playing Friday and Saturday nights.

OFTEN IT'S A CASE of being too close to the scallopini to remember the veal, so I'm prompted to apologize to Leo Albertoni for my forgetfulness, and sing the praises of Mission Inn.

It's just about two blocks from the I-J and my business club used to eat lunch there occasionally. But on Thursdays and that's now the day regularly taken over by another group. Time has gone by and I haven't mentioned Leo's food recently.

Places like Mission Inn have a way of being taken for granted, and suddenly one day you realize they're no longer there. They are fast disappearing from the county and it's a worthwhile thing to visit them so you'll know an original copy when you see it—from someone's idea of a duplicate. Not that Leo has any idea of closing, but just in case . . .

Italian dinners here: Scallopini, of course, cacciatori and those other hearty dishes. There's a special family dinner at $2.50, changed daily (child's plate $1.25) and the regular menu runs from $2 to about $4.

AND SPEAKING of Italian dinners, someone was asking me where to go for good Italian lasagne. I remember now. La Ginestra at 127 Throckmorton Avenue, Mill Valley. This used to be Esposti's. You might also try their saltimboca.

LUNCH MENU at Alioto's Arbordale, Sausalito has been extended by new manager John Sabella to give more variety. Selections are changed daily.

Medics Name Mills New President-Elect

Dr. Robert L. Mills, Ross plastic surgeon, was announced last night as president-elect of the Marin Medical Society in an uncontested election.

Mills will serve as president-elect next year and will automatically advance to president in 1966 to succeed Dr. Ira H. Degenhardt of Ross, current president - elect. Dr. Calvin Plumhof of Kentfield is this year's president.

Results of mail balloting in the election were announced by Plumhof at the society's monthly dinner meeting at the Meadow Club above Fairfax.

Dr. Robert F. Schell of San Rafael was named secretary-treasurer; Dr. John R. Lee of Mill Valley and Dr. Duval B. Jaros of Greenbrae, three-year directors; Dr. M. Alden Van Pelt of San Rafael, one-year director; Dr. Arthur R. Ablin of San Rafael, delegate to the California Medical Assn., and Dr. James M. Stubblebine of Mill Valley, alternate delegate.

There were about 18 writ-in votes for president, Plumhof said.

Dr. Gwendolyn Campion of San Rafael, who was elected Tuesday to the board of Marin Hospital District, received a hearty round of applause from the medical society members, many of whom worked for her election. In a short talk, she told her fellow members of the profession, "My election proves that if doctors stick together, they have a great deal of power."

College Trustees Accept Bolinas Biology Station

Sitting amid salt water tanks in the new laboratory of College of Marin's marine biology station in Bolinas, the college board last night accepted notice of completion of the $65,000 project.

The board directed a letter of thanks be sent to M. J. Lamperti, president of the North Bay Electric Works Inc. of San Rafael and member of the college's citizens' advisory committee, for his "sincere interest in the development of the laboratory." Lamperti's firm was awarded the contract for remodeling the two buildings on the former Coast Guard Station site in June.

Alfonso Molina, biology instructor at the laboratory, told the board of tentative plans to open the marine biology station to tours next spring and share facilities with other junior colleges.

He reported the laboratory was being used as a starting point for field trips by College of Marin students to Duxury Reef.

Several Bolinas residents attending the meeting asked that community organizations be "put to work" helping the station improve its program.

Gordon Chan, Sir Francis Drake High School teacher and co-planner of the laboratory's program, said that since courses in marine biology would be offered at the freshman and sophomore levels, many of Marin's top high school science students would start their college careers at the College of Marin, the only junior college on the Pacific coast with a marine biology station.

The College Board Of Marin Also:

1. Authorized amending the contract for construction of the College Center on the Kentfield campus to include installation of additional dial telephone equipment.
2. Authorized district architects Falk and Booth to proceed with designs of two portable classrooms and their placement at the site of the dental assisting laboratory on Magnolia Avenue in Larkspur.
3. Approved inviting Alfred Frankenstein, San Francisco Chronicle art critic, to speak on "American Art and American Moods" Nov. 13 at the college at a fee of $100.
4. Approved including a lecture by Dr. Ralph E. Lapp, an atomic scientist, in the college's concert and lecture series schedule next April at a $500 fee.
5. Received a report on a survey of former College of Marin students at the University of California and San Francisco and San Jose State College which indicated they thought they were well-prepared for upper division study and had few problems in transferring to four-year institutions.

Keating Plans No Retirement

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite his defeat in last Tuesday's election, New York's Sen. Kenneth B. Keating intends to remain active in politics.

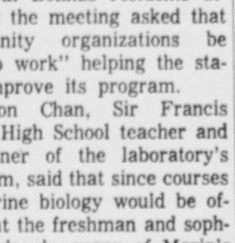
"I've no plans to seek another elective post," the 64-year-old Republican said in an interview in his Washington office, "but I'm not going to retire."

His plans are still up in the air and he's in no hurry to rush them now. He expressed hope they might include some form of government service.

Meningitis Kills Man On Peninsula

PACIFICA (AP) — A Pacifica man has died of meningitis, but authorities said his death had no connection with the outbreak of the virus at the Army's Fort Ord training base.

Laurence S. Jenkins, 29, a cement finisher, died yesterday at his home, the third to die in San Mateo County this year attributed to meningitis.



ELLSWORTH R. BRIGGS
Resigns for new post

Briggs Quits College For New Position

Dr. Ellsworth R. Briggs, dean of adult education at College of Marin, resigned last night to become vice president for instruction at the new College of the Redwoods in Eureka.

"It is with deep regret that we accept this resignation from one of the outstanding members of the faculty," said Robert E. Oliver, chairman of the college board of trustees.

Briggs, former dean of Hutchinson (Kan.) Junior College, was hired by College of Marin in April, 1961. While at the Kentfield campus, he has been responsible for expansion of the College of Marin's evening and summer adult program and the concert and lecture series.

Since his arrival, courses in real estate, data processing, fire and police science, small business management and Braille transcription have been added to the adult program.

The College of Marin Board accepted Briggs' resignation and directed that his request to be released sometime in January, 1965, be granted.

Pilot Is Killed In San Leandro Crash

SAN LEANDRO (AP)—The pilot of a single-engine private plane was killed last night in a crash near the San Leandro waterfront. He apparently was alone in the plane.

A private mortuary said the pilot carried the identification of James Riley Weise, 22, of Turlock. His Cessna 182, which may have been rented or borrowed, was demolished, authorities said. There was no fire.

Board Opposes Adult Education Proposal

An attempt to settle rivalry between Los Angeles County high school and junior college adult education administrators by amending the state education code will be opposed by the College of Marin board.

The board last night directed a resolution be prepared for presentation at a hearing of the State Senate's committee on education next week in Los Angeles.

The resolution opposes a plan to put non-credit adult education entirely in high schools.

Dr. Ellsworth R. Briggs, dean of the college's adult education program, told the board that a fight for the proposed revision in the state code was led by a Los Angeles school administrator during a recent meeting of the California Assn. of Adult Education Administrators.

"Some charged he was fighting a personal battle for control of adult education in his own district by imposing statewide laws on the rest of us," Briggs said.

"In many areas a junior college can serve better than the high school, and in many cases people prefer to come to a college for non-credit courses, rather than to a high school."

Hamilton Lets Three Contracts

The base procurement office at Hamilton Air Force Base today announced award of three contracts and called for bids on four others.

Bids were called to paint the interiors of airmen's dormitories, Bldgs. 424 and 442; to supply a food distribution cart; to paint Bldgs. 583 and 585, and for telephone equipment and component parts.

A $3,473 contract was awarded to Consolidated Electrical Distributors of San Francisco for a lighting system; a $2,633 contract to R. W. Reade and Co. of Berkeley for cleaning and painting aviation lubrication tanks; a $3,290 contract to Mattern Construction of San Francisco to repair a pedestrian walkway bridge.

Well, not for every-body.
You have to be 21 and come over to Sam's in Tiburon to get it.
And, if you find fulfillment in the works of Edgar Guest, Paul Harvey, Daddy Warbucks, Jane Addams, Norman Rockwell, and Henry Doelger... you might prefer to stick with Sam's tried and true Burger & Beer.
But if a spark of the bon vivant burns in your soul, your taste will be abundantly rewarded with this bizarre combination.

Schools Now Have Three Board Groups

Novato area residents wi 11 have only one school district next fiscal year, but until then they will have three school boards.

The new board created by unification of San Jose and Novato School District will take office in about a week.

While the new board is preparing to take over next year, the existing boards in the two districts will continue to operate the schools until June 30, 1965.

MEETING DEADLINE

First meeting of the new board will have to be before Nov. 23, Edwin L. Blackmore of the county schools office reported.

The new board will be able to carry out all functions except that of operating schools, Blackmore said. It will be able to prepare a budget, hire personnel, plan the use of schools, and call for a tax or bond election or seek a state loan.

Among duties of the new board will be hiring a district superintendent. Two district superintendents are under contract: James G. Bunker in Novato and Ralph Giovanniello in the San Jose District. The new board can select either or neither, Blackmore said. However, each superintendent's contract will continue in existence for its term or two years, whichever is greater, no matter what his assignment may be.

POWER TO EMPLOY

The new board also will have the power to employ personnel to assist it in its work and will work out arrangements with the San Rafael High School District for gradual transfer of high school students from San Jose district now attending Terra Linda High School.

Supt. of Schools Virgil S. Hollis must certify the election results, then call the first meeting of the new board.

Novatans Told Freeway Bypass Still Set But Money Is Problem

By THERON A. NEWELL

Construction of the Highway 101 freeway bypass through Novato is still scheduled for the early 1970s, Alan S. Hart, San Francisco district engineer with the State Division of Highways, told a chamber of commerce meeting at Hill Top Restaurant in Novato yesterday.

"The highway commission has adopted the route, a freeway agreement has been signed, and we are in the process of establishing the right of way lines," Hart said.

"No money has been approved, but enough surveying has been done to know that we have 122 parcels to buy." The state has purchased three of these, which "isn't going very far," he said.

"San Rafael is the next bottleneck to be remedied," Hart said. Novato, with 25,000 cars per day, will not be moved ahead of San Rafael, which has 50,000 cars per day, he declared.

"I've been heckled for a small job on Tiburon Boulevard which will cost half a million dollars," Hart told the luncheon meeting. He said that it would be constructed first, but would in "no way interfere with the Novato freeway."

A project which might take priority and interfere with obtaining funds for the Novato freeway is installation of a lower deck on the Golden Gate Bridge, according to Hart.

If the Golden Gate Bridge District installs the second deck, "we might have to spread the present highway and bring up the four lower lanes in the middle of it," Hart said. He added that the Waldo tunnels would also be made eight lanes in that case.

The Division of Highways has deferred work in West Marin, pending development of the county's West Marin master plan, Hart said. However, when the Point Reyes National Seashore is developed, the state must provide a road link to it from Mill Valley, he declared.

"That volume of traffic is not here yet," he added.

"We must also get the location down for Route 17 from San Rafael to Point Reyes," he said. The Novato to Nicasio road must go hand-in-hand with that study because they must tie together, Hart stated.

Money is the big problem, with 90 per cent of the state budget going into the interstate system. Other projects must split the remaining 10 per cent, Hart noted.

Donald R. Frost, Marin County public works director, asked what local people could do to get Highway 101 into the interstate system.

Hart said they should work through their congressmen and senators.

"It comes down as a mandate from Washington," he said.

He explained that to qualify for an interstate system highway, a road must have a "military connotation" and connect as many cities of 50,000 or more as possible.

With so much money going into that system, the state is almost down to budgeting the minimum per county set by state law, Hart reported.

"Marin County's share is one million dollars a year, so you can see how long it would take for three and one-half million dollars for right of way for a seven and one-half-million-dollar job," he said.

He gave one word of hope however. He said that usually when plans are completed, "the money comes from somewhere."

"That is why we are going ahead with the plans as fast as our work schedule permits," he concluded.

Shorrs Set Violin, Piano Concert At Dominican

Frances and Lev Shorr will present a violin and piano concert Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Angelico Hall of Dominican College in San Rafael.

Violinist Frances Shorr is a graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. Her pianist husband, a graduate of the Petrograd Conservatory of Music, is an internationally famous concert pianist and a noted teacher, among his students being Hepzibah and Yalta Menuhin and Leon Fleisher.

Tuesday night the Shorrs will play "Sonata Concertanate" by Leon Kirchner; Sonata in F Major, Op. 24, by Beethoven; "Duo Concertant" by Stravinsky, and Sonata in G Major, K. 301, by Mozart.

Planners Facing Two Agendas

Fairfax Planning Commission will have a double agenda when it meets Nov. 19.

The commissioners will have to go over everything they decided on Oct. 29 because of a quorum requirement they didn't know about in the revised planning commission ordinance.

When the ordinance was changed recently, the number of commissioners was reduced from nine to seven, but the city council left the quorum requirement at five. Only four members were at the Oct. 29 meeting.

The main agenda item to be repeated is consideration of an amendment to the zoning ordinance providing for planned community development. The amendment provides for city controls on developers' plans for complex communities which include residences, commercial enterprises and industries or any combination of different types of development.

Plant Site Cemetery Is Being Maintained

WATERFORD, N.Y. (AP) — The General Electric Co. maintains a cemetery on its plant site in this village near Troy.

The plot is not for G.E. workers, however. It was there when the company acquired the site, and most of the dead lived in the Revolutionary War period. There are about 40 stone markers.

CABARET MUSICAL

'Blackout Bash' Set By Group In Novato

"Blackout Bash," a cabaret-type musical, will be presented at the Novato Community House by the Novato Community Club at 8:30 p.m. today, tomorrow, and Nov. 13 and 14.

The "Bash" was written by Scott Wright with assistance of other club members.

Three settings—a "Tennessee Williams set," a "Noel Coward set" and a "Shakespearian set"—provide background for such numbers as "Coffee Breaking Point" with Mike Jones, Don Kelly, Scott Wright and Lee Mann; "Death of a Bailsman," featuring Saunde Brown, Alex Consagra and Bill Jacob; "Pigalle in Paris," done by Dwan Scheiren, Scott Wright and Ken Craig; "Bronco Sternblat," featuring John Littlefield, Don Leaf and Bob Comaduran, and a boxing skit with Joe Jacob and Alex Consagra.

"The Insects," a takeoff of England's Beatles, will be done by Herb Webb, Don Nehasil, Marty Beebe and Bob Comaduran.

Specialty numbers include "Me and My Shadow," with Elaine Jacob and Lee Mann; "Side by Side," with Bill and Beth Jacob; "Be a Clown," with Roselyn Chaffee and Shirley Redley, and "Apache" with Elaine and Joe Jacob and Lee Mann.

Among solo performers are Vivienne Terry with "Big Bad Bill," Lois Wright with "All of the Time," Marilyn Cassady with "La Vien Rose," Dawn Scheiren doing "Bill Bailey," Lee Young in "The Best Is Yet to Come," Stacey Brennan in "Hava Niglia," and Don Nehasil in "Don't Take Your Love From Me." A comic chorus will do "Cigarettes, Whisky and Wild, Wild Women."

The finale, "That Was The Town That Was," will be led by John Littlefield.

Wanda Blackwell has done most of the choreography. Jerry J. Young is producer; Max Keeler, director; Don Leaf, stage manager; Bob Lombardi, in charge of lighting, and Ray Brennan, in charge of sound equipment.

Lorraine Crozier is pianist and there will be accordion music during intermissions. Refreshments will be served.

Lighting Is Sought In Stinson

Stinson Beach Progressive Club directors Wednesday night authorized the club's street light committee to circulate petitions asking for street lights in the beach village along Shoreline Highway.

Lighting will be sought through a county service area, reported Mrs. Harriet M. Greene, secretary-treasurer.

Ten per cent of registered voters residing within the area proposed to be established must sign the petitions, Mrs. Greene said. Payment for lighting, if approved, will be through county taxes.

George N. Brockhurst presented the report for the committee.

Charles Leavitt and Elting C. Hubbard were appointed as a committee to nominate persons for offices of the club for next year.

Junior College Set For Funds Battle

Junior college administrators throughout California are preparing for a battle with state officials over how 50 million dollars in state bond funds will be shared for junior college construction, College of Marin President Stephen E. Epler said yesterday.

Proposition 2, the state construction bond issue approved by the voters Tuesday, included 50 million dollars for junior colleges, but did not specify how it was to be apportioned.

Epler, as chairman of the committee on finance and legislation of the California Junior College Assn., will have a voice in the decision.

The legislature must make the final decision during its 1965 session, Epler said, but a special committee of state and local school and finance officials has been set up to make a recommendation, and it is on this committee that the battle will be fought.

Epler said state officials, in both the Department of Education and Department of Finance, favor a "Project" plan, whereby funds would be given for particular building projects, rather than to particular schools.

Local school officials, including Epler, will fight for an apportionment plan whereby every junior college will receive some money, with colleges with fast growth or low assessed valuation especially favored.

Epler claimed before the elect- that that College of Marin stood to gain between $500,000 and one million dollars. These funds could be used to speed construction of a new science building on the Kentfield campus and, perhaps, start some development sooner on the Novato campus.

Striking Auto Workers Return

OAKLAND (AP)—The 500 striking workers at the General Motors Parts Division warehouse in Oakland have returned to work, ending a six-week work stoppage.

Workers on the afternoon shift went back to their jobs yesterday after ratification of the local agreement supplementing the national agreement on Oct. 25 between the United Auto Workers Union and General Motors.

Steel Union Faces Struggle For Power

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — I. W. Abel, secretary-treasurer of the giant United Steelworkers, said today he would seek the job of USW president David J. McDonald, his long-time ally, in the union's quadrennial elections next February.

Two high-ranking Abel supporters said they would be candidates for the union's other two top jobs in the first open power struggle in USW history.

It would be the most serious threat to McDonald's leadership since he became president in 1952 on the death of Philip Murray, founder of the union.

Informed labor sources in Washington said an all-out battle could make it more difficult to reach a wage agreement in steel industry negotiations next year. They said McDonald could be forced into a tougher stance in bargaining to meet opposition criticism.

Ox Injures Four

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (UPI)—An ox escaped from a slaughterhouse yesterday and charged down this city's main street. Four persons were injured, including an elderly woman who was gored. The animal leaped through the plate glass window of a furniture store before police shot it to death.

New Oregon Law Saves 3 From Death

SALEM, Ore. (UPI)—A woman and two men who lived for years in the shadow of Oregon's gas chamber were released from death row today.

Oregon voted Tuesday to abolish capital punishment and make life imprisonment the maximum penalty for first degree murder.

However, Jeannace June Freeman, 22; Larry West Shipley, 23, and Herbert Floyd Mitchell, 43, could have been executed anyway. The three—the only Oregon prisoners awaiting death in the gas chamber—were exempted from the provisions of the abolition referendum.

But within 48 hours after it passed, Gov. Mark Hatfield ordered their sentences commuted to life "in view of the expression of the people of Oregon in their vote abolishing capital punishment."

Miss Freeman was condemned to die for the 1961 slaying of a 6-year-old boy, Mitchell for the 1962 shooting of a man who was sitting in a theater with Mitchell's estranged wife, and Shipley for the 1961 slaying of his 16-year-old girl friend.

Alaska, Hawaii Really Youngest

WASHINGTON (AP) — Alaska and Hawaii are the two newest states in the union, and they have the youngest populations, too.

The Census Bureau said yesterday that about 84 per cent of Alaska's populatnon and about 79 per cent of Hawaii's are under 45. The national average is 71 per cent.

About 9.3 per cent of the nation's population is over 65. But only 2.6 per cent of Alaska's and 4.9 per cent of Hawaii's is.

Passage Of Proposition 14 Takes State Back Century

The passage of Proposition 14 in some ways takes California back to the 19th Century when "exclusion" flourished.

The shameful Chinese Exclusion Acts constituted legalized discrimination as does the passage of Proposition 14.

What will be some of the results of this backward step?

First, we are afraid the rug has been pulled from under the moderate, reasonable leaders of the integration movement within the Negro community. Proposition 14 tends to indicate these moderates were wrong in counseling a "go easy, we will get farther" attitude.

The radical integrationists and even the Black racists have held the view that the whites will never voluntarily accept the Negro as an equal; the issue must be forced. Passage of Proposition 14 tends to confirm this view. The radicals' hand is strengthened.

Consequently, we can look forward to more instead of less racial pressure and friction ahead.

Court tests? We can look for a flurry of them and possibly some upset of Proposition 14, although at the moment we can't imagine on what grounds.

Another election to undo the ill-considered measure? Possibly. Governor Brown said before election he would consider calling a special election if Proposition 14 passed.

The inevitable outcome must be the ultimate repeal of this amendment to our state constitution, to restore to the Legislature the power and authority to deal with racial discrimination in housing.

Proposition 14 must ultimately join slavery, Chinese exclusion, and the infamous California prohibition of property ownership by Oriental immigrants, as bits of American history we recall with shame.

But all the effect of the contest over Proposition 14 will NOT be bad.

Much good has come and will make itself felt in time to come. Many people who were indifferent and unconcerned and almost unaware of the plight of the Negro — especially the well-educated, clean-cut young American who wants to get ahead in the world like anybody else.

The debate over Proposition 14 made many aware of the Negro's problem, and concerned and sympathetic.

So the Negro will have a broader, more active sympathetic, concerned white support.

Many decent people probably will hereafter be more concerned about the plight of the Negro would-be purchaser of their homes than about the sensitivity of their racist neighbors.

The Negro should benefit somewhat from this.

The Colored Leaves Of Autumn

Marin's fall colors are not as spectacular as those of the East Coast. One reason is the abundance of evergreens, not only conifers, but acacias, eucalyptuses and live oaks. All these tend to mask the beautiful fall colors in Marin, just as the chlorophyll in the leaves of deciduous trees masks their golds and purples until it dies.

But we in Marin have some magnificent specimens of fall color now. Every neighborhood has some beautiful sight. From our window it is the scarlet of vine leaves and the reddish-purple of the Japanese maple.

What trees and shrubs are adding autumn decoration to your neighborhood? Take the time to enjoy the beauties of Nature and add another dimension to your life.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Johnson Victory Expected, But Plenty Of Surprises Elsewhere

By WAT TAKESHITA

MARIN'S REJECTION of the Goldwater-Miller ticket was more or less expected, in view of the heavy Republican preference for Governor Rockefeller last June.

TAKESHITA

But the big margin of victory by Congressman Don Clausen and Sen. Jack McCarthy came as a mild surprise. We thought it would be much closer.

Could be that the Republicans, who could not get themselves to vote for Senator Goldwater, atoned for that defection by going all out for their party in the congressional and state contests.

IN THE LOCAL races, Ernest Kettenhofen's victory over Bill Fusselman was the big upset, although Kettenhofen's surprise showing last June gave some indication of what was to come.

But young Tom Storer's win came as an even bigger surprise. His door-to-door effort probably did it, as our editor predicted on the eve of the election. Former Supervisor Jim Marshall's support of Storer clinched it.

Byron Leydecker barely squeaked by for a full term on the Board of Supervisors. This was as close a race as you'll see in a long time.

Most voters seemed to be satisfied that either man would make a good representative on the board.

IN A TIGHT race like this one, one can only guess at the various factors that swung it for the incumbent.

Orlando Conti's support probably helped Leydecker some. Time and experience also aided Leydecker. During his running debates with Mayor John McInnis, Leydecker picked up some of the poise and polish of the more experienced mayor.

But here again, the big gain probably came in Leydecker's house-to-house calls in San Rafael proper, where he had lost heavily last June.

OTHER CAMPAIGN sidelights:

One precinct went 140 for President Johnson and only one vote for Senator Goldwater.

Several precincts nearly reached 100 per cent voter turnout. In precinct 1101 at Church of Christ in San Rafael, all but five registered voters cast ballots. There are probably others that did as well or better.

One woman, aged 82, when approached by a campaign worker who urged her to vote, replied it wasn't necessary. "I'll just pray to put the right man in office."

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Large, Black Dog Mars Halloween

Editor, Independent-Journal:

After reading your article on the events of Halloween night, I wonder why the fact that my dog (who is a mere nine pounds) was chewed by a big black dog was not noted, as it was reported to the Sheriff's office. This dog was brought to our door by girls between the ages of eight and 13. As I was giving them their candy their dog grabbed my dog and mauled him to the extent he had to be hospitalized and had to have three gashes on his body stitched. I wonder why their parents didn't take these girls around and enjoy the fun with them.

Needless to say there will be no more trick-or-treat at our house. I wonder if these people will come forward and let us know if their dog has had rabies shots.

Proposition 16 Stand Praised

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The success of the campaign to defeat the private lottery scheme, Proposition 16, is clearly due to the cooperation of the news media throughout the state. Here in the Bay Area there is no doubt that the Independent-Journal's editorials and news coverage played a leading role in this victory.

Congratulations and thanks are due to your leadership, and to other members of your staff who did such a fine job of presenting the facts upon which our case rested.

This is not an ordinary post-election letter of appreciation, because our lack of funds in this campaign made us depend upon you more than ever before.

On behalf of all of us, I want to express our appreciative gratitude.

Best Candidate Or Straight Tickets?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

. . . We must assume that the presidential candidates are the best possible candidates for each of the parties.

If this is a valid assumption, it would mean that Senator Goldwater is the best possible Republican candidate and President Johnson is the best possible Democratic candidate.

If this is not true, the party or parties have not put forth their best candidate, or can find none better—God forbid.

Another "if": if second-rate candidates are put before voters, what is the purpose of voting for a presidential candidate; why not rather vote the straight party ticket?

Time To Bring Up Question Of Why Campaigns So Long

WASHINGTON (AP) — Now, with the election over and the candidates home after logging enough miles to reach three-quarters of the way to the moon, a familiar, haunting question remains, more vivid than ever.

Some of the candidates themselves raised it as the 1964 race dragged toward a close: Is the brutal length of the American presidential campaign necessary?

THERE SEEMS no intelligent reason for the length of it. But, as in the past, almost certainly nothing will be done to shorten it. Yet, a much shorter campaign would be physical blessing to the candidates and a kindness to the voters.

The British election campaign lasts three weeks. The American spreads over months. Surely all the candidates have to say could be said in a month or less. That was particularly true this year.

The views and positions of President Lyndon B. Johnson and Sen. Barry M. Goldwater were so well known before the campaign began that all their speechmaking added nothing basically new.

MORE THAN ever in these days of television a candidate doesn't have to dart into every nook and cranny of America to "meet the folks." He can state his case close up on the television screen in practically every living room.

It doesn't make sense but the best explanation why nothing will be done is that the stretched-out campaign has become an American tradition which every four years now requires bands, boos, cheers, processions, speeches in coliseums and on street corners, and assorted brands of corn.

Yet, the presidential campaign as we know it is new in this century, getting its start in a mild way with Presidents Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson and working up to jets, autos, whistle-stops and amplifiers.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN, for instance, not only didn't campaign for the presidency in 1860 or for re-election in 1864, he thought it improper to vote for himself. He had to be persuaded to vote at least for his fellow Republicans.

Between them, Johnson and his vice-presidential running mate, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, in this year's campaign traveled about 90,000 miles and made about 250 speeches.

Goldwater and his vice-presidential partner, Rep. William E. Miller, had a mileage over 100,000 with around 350 speeches. All four endlessly repeated themselves.

September conventions would give the candidates no more than four to six weeks of speechmaking, handshaking and racing around the country. Handshaking alone can be a devastating experience for a president, as Johnson's bandaged hand showed.

BENNETT CERF

JUST BEFORE a drafted farm boy made his first parachute jump, his sergeant reminded him, "Count 10 and pull the first rip cord. If it snarls, pull the second rip cord for the auxiliary chute. After you land, our truck will pick you up."

The paratrooper took a deep breath, and jumped. He counted to 10, and pulled the first cord. Nothing happened. He pulled the second cord. Again nothing happened. As he careened crazily earthward, he said to himself, "Now I'll bet that darn truck won't be there either!"

MR. RITCHIE had just supervised the putting down of a fine new concrete walk outside his villa, and was outraged when he caught his three children pressing their hands and footprints into the still-wet concrete. He walloped the three of them until they howled for mercy. "You brute," chided his wife. "Don't you love your children at all?" Replied Mr. Ritchie, "In the abstract, yes, but not in the concrete!"

A RASH YOUNG writer once importuned Samuel Johnson to rate his manuscript. Wrote Johnson: "Sir: I consider your work both good and original. But the part that is good is not original. And the part that is original is not good. (Signed) Samuel Johnson."

Soviets Convict Each Other –Leaders All Bad After Fall

WASHINGTON — One aspect of the abrupt overthrow of Nikita Khrushchev has been overlooked.

It isn't hard to see why Khrushchev had to go. But what must the Soviet people think of the character of the government which has been imposed on them for so many years?

Here is a regime which boasts of being superior to most in education, technology, science and culture — with great poets, great dramatists, great scientists and great athletes.

QUESTION: What has Soviet communism allowed this rich and resourceful culture to produce by way of government?

The neglected meaning of the Khrushchev fall from power with the same condemnation with which he deposed his predecessors is embedded in the answer.

The truth—and this, I think, is the most momentous fall-out from the Kremlin explosion—is:

THAT, BY the public, official admission of the highest leaders of the entire Communist hierarchy, Russia has had nothing but "ruthless," "capricious," "irresponsible," "odious," "murdering," "erratic" government-by-cult-of-personality—one after another—for 40 years.

These are not the Western world's partisan judgments of the Soviet governments from 1924 to 1964.

These are the published judgments of the Soviet Communist leaders on their own governments.

THESE ARE not epithets picked by a propagandist to describe a make-believe nightmare.

These are the actual epithets applied by succeeding Soviet leaders to describe the real-life nightmare through which they have lived.

These are words used by Lenin, Stalin, Malenkov, Bulganin, Molotov, Khrushchev, Suslov, Brezhnev and Kosygin to describe each other and the governments they have given to their country.

NOT A SINGLE Kremlin government has escaped this description by its successors in 40 years. Lenin even warned his colleagues what was ahead for them—and for Russia—before he died in 1924. He saw the kind of rule Stalin was fashioning, branded him as "capricious" and "abusive of power," but was helpless to sidetrack him.

From 1924 to 1953, first as the powerful party secretary and from 1941 as both secretary and premier, Stalin gave the USSR a government which his successors termed "paranoiac." They disclosed that he purged several million Soviet farmers—to show them how to farm better. They revealed that in one maneuver to keep himself in power he executed 70 per cent of the members of the Central Committee. Khrushchev once remarked: "We never knew, when we entered Stalin's presence, whether we would come out alive."

After Stalin came Malenkov and Bulganin, who held power for five years — with Khrushchev the force behind the scenes. Khrushchev got rid of them finally by affirming they were "enemies of the state" and "engaged in an anti-party conspiracy." Now Khrushchev has gone the way of the other Soviet leaders, condemned, discarded and disgraced as an unreliable and unworthy man unfit to govern.

IN ORDER to preserve the fiction that the Communist system is never at fault, the Communist leaders have no choice but to blame each other, not the system.

What are the Soviet people — let alone the rest of the world — to think about this record of 40 years of Soviet leaders, each branded by the other as unreliable, unworthy and unfit to rule such a potentially great nation?

When this truth comes fully home to the Soviet people, it is going to be more dangerous to the Communist dictatorship than the Chinese bomb.

President Is Facing Crisis In Defense

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—The steadily increasing firepower and mobility of the Soviet armed forces present President Lyndon B. Johnson with one of his most pressing defense and budget problems.

Before Congress reconvenes in January, Johnson must either seek support of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization nations to modernize and expand their conventional armed forces or junk U.S. plans to withdraw all tactical atomic weapons from these troops.

OTHERWISE, NATO will become a hollow shell in the face of Russia's growing military superiority on the continent.

This dark defense and budget news is contained in an unpublished Army intelligence report on the strengthening capabilities of the Soviet armed forces.

The estimate, being circulated at the highest levels of the Johnson administration, already has caused the Joint Chiefs of Staff to recommend that NATO nations be asked to supply four more divisions during 1965.

THE ARMY'S study reveals that Soviet armed forces total 3,345,000 — over 400,000 more than earlier estimates. Of this powerful force, 2,300,000 are in the Soviet army; 420,000 in the air force; 400,000 in the navy, and 225,000 "militarized security forces."

An estimated 1,200,000 Soviet troops, comprising more than 15 armies, are in position facing NATO forces in Europe. Seven of these armies (740,000 troops) are stationed in Russia's western military district near the borders of its Eastern European satellites.

Soviet forces in Eastern Germany are estimated at 340,000, making up six armies with 20 "line divisions." Also 50,000 Soviet troops are in Hungary; 35,000 in Poland, and 55,000 in Czechoslovakia.

THIS POWERFUL military force is maintained by a 43-billion-dollar defense budget—approximately the same amount the U.S. is spending on its military establishment.

The Army's study stresses that the Soviet armed forces' state of readiness, combat effectiveness and modern equipment make them at least the equal of, or better than, any forces in the world.

MAJOR CHANGES in the leadership of the U.S. Communist Party appear in the making.

This development is indicated by the steady stream of U.S. Communists to the Soviet Union since the death in Moscow of Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, chairman of the U.S. Communist Party.

U.S. diplomats in Moscow have been flooding the State Department with cables on the arrivals and activities of U.S. Communists in the Soviet capital.

The acetylene plant at Marinship exploded, causing no injuries but doing several thousand dollars damage and leading many southern Marin residents to fear an enemy invasion had taken place.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By FRANK FARRARA

County Employees Given Much To Gripe About From Board

MARIN COUNTY employees who may be inclined to complain haven't had too far to look for issues lately.

County supervisors have recently given them plenty of material for griping sessions: top-level pay raises and a cutback on outside work by a county employee.

Some employees still haven't gotten over the raises supervisors granted to some department heads, including a $5,000-a-year boost to County Administrator Alan Bruce.

"That's more than I make in a year," one clerical worker commented and there were several echoes along the same theme.

SUPERVISORS granted Bruce's raise after the executive salary committee reported that his $16,000 per year was well below that of county administrators in comparable counties and below that of the city administrator of Novato.

The committee also reported "we still have a situation in which the administrator works from a position of relative weakness both as to job definition and salary ranking. To strengthen the executive authority of the board itself, it is necessary to re-enforce the position of the board's executive agent."

There's no doubt that $5,000 will go a long way toward re-enforcing Bruce's position, or anyone's for that matter.

THE NEXT STEP as the committee sees it is to redefine Bruce's authority and responsibility, and toward that end it proposed strengthening of the administrative ordinance.

This may all be well and good but the average county employee wonders why the board had to strengthen Bruce to the tune of $5,000 a year, rather than say $1,000 or $2,000.

Supervisors noted that the increase came in one lump because the salary for that position had lagged behind for many years while responsibility and accomplishments increased.

Employees were starting to simmer down after the big pay boosts when the board started them buzzing again.

WHEN A MAN asked for authorization to work 15 hours a week on a part-time, outside job, the board decided to cut it back to eight hours.

Supervisors said they felt there should be some limit on outside work so employees wouldn't get too pooped to handle their county tasks efficiently.

One employee, who doubles as a housewife, jokingly wondered if the board would object to her working more than 15 hours a week, cooking, washing and ironing.

The general feeling among employees is that it is not the outside hours that count, but how well you do your county job.

ONE CLERICAL worker commented that she even went so far as to look forward to her part-time job as a waitress because it is so different from her county job, a sort of job that refreshes.

At one time there was even a wild rumor that some supervisors were spending more than 15 hours a week at their supervisorial jobs, but that was just before election.

Bus Drivers Due Awards For Safety

Two Novato men will receive safety award certificates for their safe driving records as Greyhound bus drivers.

Kenneth L. Foutch of 1907 Novato Boulevard has driven approximately 525,000 miles in 15 years on runs between Marin County and San Francisco. Richard T. Nordquist of 176 Lobo Street will be honored for his 10-year safety record of 350,000 miles of commuter service driving.

ART BUCHWALD

Divorce—Television Style; This Sound Like Your House?

WASHINGTON—Hello, Mom, Is my wife there? . . . What do you mean she won't talk to me? She's being ridiculous . . . I know she's sore at me, but it's been almost a week now. How long can she stay mad? . . . Nothing happened! Nothing at all . . . You only heard her version . . . Saturday, that's when it all started.

I'll admit I agreed to rake the leaves, but that was before I realized the Pitt-Syracuse game was on TV . . . What's wrong with watching a football game on TV? . . . I know I also listened to the Notre Dame - Navy game on the radio, but it was the "Game of the Week" . . . I did too talk to her Saturday afternoon. I distinctly remember asking why she hadn't put any beer on ice.

SHE SAID I wouldn't come to dinner? That's not exactly true. I had to watch the big race at Aqueduct and then there was "Wide World of Sports" and I said I'd come in after that, but it was just my luck there was a hockey game on next. You don't see much hockey on television any more . . . I told her I'd eat my dinner in the TV room and do you know what she said? She said, "I'm not running a hotel. You can get your own dinner!" Now, is that a nice thing to say to somebody who's watching a hockey game? . . .

A, Ma, you know how she exaggerates. The wrestling matches ended at 11 o'clock. She knew I liked wrestling when I married her. I came to bed right after "College Scoreboard."

SUNDAY? I guess I did say something about raking leaves on Sunday, but first I had to read about the Notre Dame-Navy game and then the big race at Aqueduct and then the hockey game, and before I knew it it was time for the Redskin-Eagles kickoff on TV . . . That's not true. I did let her into the TV room. I only told her to get out after she asked me what color drapes I wanted in the bedroom just as Charley Taylor was running for a touchdown . . .

Did she tell you that? . . . Did she also tell you that she wouldn't give me any lunch unless I brought in the dirty dishes from Saturday night? Now I ask you what kind of wife is that? . . . I didn't yell at her . . . I may have raised my voice when it was fourth down, touchdown to go, and she told me to take all the summer clothes up to the attic, but I did not use violent language . . .

SHE GETS everything wrong . . . I didn't watch the Detroit-Rams game after that. It was Buffalo against Houston. And it was a very important game. How many doubleheaders do you get on television? . . . Okay, so I forgot we invited the Winstons over for drinks. I wasn't rude to them. I showed them where the bar was and said I'd see them in a couple of hours. How did I know they were going to go home before "Great Moments from Pro Football" was over?

Listen, Mom, you talk to her. I'm getting tired of eating TV dinners and there isn't a clean dish left in the house.

And tell her I love her and miss her and the children very much . . . What did she say? She said she'd come back? Great, wonderful. When does she want me to pick her up? . . . Saturday. Gee, I can't Saturday. Illinois is playing Michigan and it could mean an invitation to the Rose Bowl.

Teachers Told To Quit Remarks

HOUSTON (UPI) — Teachers of English at the University of Houston have been told they are not supposed to engage in verbal sparring with their pupils, especially on such touchy subjects as politics, religion and sex.

The warning came from the chairman of the department, Dr. Joseph M. Doggett. He sent a memorandum to the English faculty.

He said he had to soothe "a number of parents and students" who were angered by sarcastic comments about their views from their English instructors.

Buying property is a big step

That's Why Your Real Estate Broker Should Specify T.I. Title Protection (Most do)

When you buy property, you want to be sure it's really yours. That your interests are well protected should someone make a claim against your property title. That's the reason for title insurance.

But not all title insurance companies are alike—and the differences are important to anyone considering a real estate transaction. They explain why T.I. is the overwhelming choice of property buyers for swift, dependable, impartial title service. And why T.I. protects the ownership rights to more California property than all other title companies.

Only T.I., for example, has complete up-to-date land records in 40 California counties. And only T.I. can offer fast service statewide with just one local phone call.

T.I.'s superior facilities mean greater speed. And greater accuracy. But the most important facility we have to offer you is our people. Your title order gets the personalized attention of an experienced escrow officer, backed up by America's largest, most experienced staff of title specialists. Your T.I. team knows local real estate. From the ground up.

When you buy or sell property, you and your real estate broker can always depend on T.I. to provide the best people, the best facilities and the best service in the title field. Because serving you is the most important thing we do.

States Working To Get Industry

By JACK LEFLER

NEW YORK (AP) — Many states are engaging in a frantic, costly scramble to attract new industries.

They are spending millions of dollars and much ingenuity to lure factories to their areas. And they are offering many inducements.

The advertisements, usually placed by state development agencies, stress such factors as nearness to markets, available labor supply, fast population growth, adequate transportation, pleasant living conditions and favorable tax structures.

Some states and cities float loans to provide sites and buildings for industries who will make their new homes there.

It's an outgrowth of the mushrooming move of industry to decentralize and get away from the old concentrations which came into being with the construction of railways and port facilities.

One estimate puts annual state spending on industrial advertising at 25 million dollars a year.

At the beginning there ads concentrated on the business aspects of their areas. More recently they have begun to stress almost equally the desirability from a living standpoint, emphasizing climate and recreational possibilities.

Business Week magazine has conducted a plant site survey in which 1,000 executives of manufacturing industries in 19 cities were queried.

These executives were asked: Whether their company was investigating possibilities for new plant sites, or planned to do so in the next five years.

What general geographical areas would be considered in the event they did decide to select new plant sites.

What specific states, metropolitan areas or cities would be favored.

California, which has been conducting an intensive advertising campaign, came out on top.

States ranking just below California were Texas, Georgia and Illinois. Top-rated geographical areas included the South Atlantic, East-North Central, Pacific and Middle Atlantic.

Kern Land Earnings Reported

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Net earnings of $14,133,000 for the first nine months of 1964 have been reported by the vast Kern County Land Co.

These earnings, which equal $3.26 a share, compared with net earnings of $12,760,000 of the corresponding period last year.

The report yesterday said the earnings came from total revenues of $115,157,000, which compared with $93,827,000 for the first nine months last year.

Increased revenues and earnings came from oil sales from Australian fields, the sale of 10,000 acres of California farm land and the recent acquisition of the J. L. Case Co.

Directors declared a third quarter regular dividend of 60 cents a share payable Dec. 5 to shareowners of record Nov. 16.

Jack Hanley

(Editor's Note: This is the last of four articles on Pete Rozelle.)

Pete Rozelle can keep his tongue in cheek without biting it, particularly when being interviewed about his rapid rise from publicity man in 1950 at University of San Francisco to National Football League commissioner in 1960 with an intermediate step in Lo Angeles as press agent and general manager of the Rams.

What about the time he signed Billy Cannon to a Ram contract a month before the Louisiana State star was to appear in the 1960 Sugar Bowl game? Didn't Rozelle, as Ram general manager, know that the NFL solemnly promised when it adopted its constitution in 1926 not to sign amateurs while they were still playing college football?

"That was the year I was born," Rozelle replied dryly.

JUST HOW did he become the compromise choice as NFL commissioner? What was the inside story?

"Well," said Rozelle, "the stalemate at the league's 1960 winter meeting over a new commissioner dragged on for almost two weeks—and, at Miami Beach hotel prices, this was very nerve-wracking to club owners.

"They finally decided they wanted a 'league man.' As general manager of the Rams, I had traded virtually a whole team to the Chicago Cardinals for Ollie Matson and I had made several trades more favorable to other clubs than the Rams.

"Here, they decided, is a 'league man.' Every move he makes is in the spirit of sacrifice to build a better league. That's how I got the job."

ROZELLE DEFINITELY is a 'league man' but not in the derogatory sense of being a pawn of the owners. Recently, he slapped a fine of four figures on George Halas for publicly criticizing NFL officiating in a Bear-49er game. There was a time when Halas seemed to run the league.

Normally, Rozelle is an easy-going fellow with a charming manner that is deceptively disarming. But any action—even by Halas—detrimental to Rozelle's constant efforts in creating a fine image of the NFL causes the youthful commissioner to seethe.

"The greatest built-in asset of the league is our personnel," said Rozelle. "We've got a file full of unsolicited letters from individuals and organizations all over the country. They're compliments to the impression made by players during public appearances.

"IF PLAYERS are shaping a fine image of the NFL, it works the other way, too. I well recall Gino Marchetti when he came into the league. He drove a mean motorcycle and sported a flowing mane of hair. Thanks to the Colts, he's now a prosperous businessman, owner of a chain of drive-ins and a pillar of the community in Baltimore."

Rozelle's predecessor, the late Bert Bell, brought the NFL a long way but, in four brief years, Rozelle has brought it much farther.

Stanford Indians Host USC Tomorrow

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) — Southern California'a Trojans battle to preserve their dimming hopes for the Rose Bowl tomorrow when they challenge the resurging Indians at Stanford.

Beaten by Washington's second half surge 14-13 a week ago, the Trojans must beat Stanford to remain in bowl contention.

The Indians can't win the title since they've lost three Pacific Athletic Conference games, yet they could play spoiler for the second straight week.

Last Saturday at Eugene, the running of Ray Handley and the toe of Braden Beck brought a 10-8 triumph over previously unbeaten Oregon.

Handley leads the PAC rushers with 686 yards, second best in the nation, and more than half the yardage earned by the Indians on the ground.

USC banks heavily on Craig Fertig, the quarterback who ranks fifth nationally in total offense with 1,214 yards and whose throwing beat California 26-21 two weeks ago.

Halfback Mike Garrett and end Fred Hill provide more offensive punch for the Trojans who have lost through injuries such defensive performers as Eddie King, Harry Wells, Denis Richman, Tom Pupo and Ernie Pye.

Coach John Ralston plans to start junior Dick Berg at quarterback, the letterman who has had to fight his way to a stating assignment over two newcomers this campaign.

Each of the other two—transfer Terry DeSylvia and sophomore Dave Lewis—also will see duty. Berg directed the touchdown march against Oregon and Lewis keyed the advance culminating in Beck's field goal with 13 seconds left, overcoming an 8-7 Oregon lead.

The left-footed kicker has hit nine conversions and seven field goals to rank fourth among the conference scorers.

Southern California has defeated the Indians six straight years and lead the PAC in both total offense and total defense. But with both UCLA and Oregon State sporting 2-0 league marks to 1-1 for USC, this game, with its 1:30 p.m. kickoff, must be rated in the do-or-die category.

Major Leagues Might Start A Draft Program

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) —The major league club owners set machines in motion today for adoption of a free-agent draft, a vote on a commissioner to succeed the retiring Ford Frick and the establishment of a central building to house all major baseball officials.

All three plans were thoroughly discussed yesterday at the opening of a three-day summit meeting that Frick called the most important and potentially far reaching in the history of the game.

The free-agent draft, recommended by the general managers, would be similar to that used by professional football in selecting players from the college gridiron ranks. If adopted, the plan would go in effect in 1965.

The new commissioner will be elected at the 1965 major league all star meeting and will take office two months before Frick's term expire next September.

The general feeling at the meeting was that the next commissioner should be a man outside of baseball who has judicial and or executive background. Each club owner was asked to send one or more recommendations to a three-man screening committee consisting of Frick and one club owner from each circuit. The club owners were not named.

The committee would then trim the list to three leading candidates who would be presented to the club owners for a vote.

The owners, upon Frick's urging, agreed to either erect or lease a building called "Baseball" either in New York, Chicago or Los Angeles to Hou the commissioner, the two league presidents and the head of the minor leagues.

"More and more it has become necessary for a closer liaison between the commissioners, the league presidents and the head of the minor leagues," said Frick.

A proposal to bring the umpires of both leagues under one supervising head was tabled for further discussion.

The free agent draft, if approved at the joint session here Saturday, would be brought up for adoption at the annual winter meetings in Houston next month.

If adopted, it would replace the first year player rule which has been in effect since 1961.

The new plan will call for a draft of all high school graduates, American Legion players and college players. This draft would be held every six months. Still to be determined is whether to draft college players after their sophomore, junior or senior year. Frick, who favors the adoption of the free agent draft, said progress has been made along those lines but declined to be specific.

Busy Day Ahead For Woodson

REDWOOD CITY (UPI)—It looks like a busy next Sunday for Abe Woodson whent he San Francisco 49ers play at Minnesota.

Coach Jack Christiansen said yesterday that Woodson would start at corner back in the defense and hold down his usual safety position on punt and kickoff runbacks. In addition, Woodson may fill in at flanker for Bernie Casey and might even try a few plays at tight back, where the 49ers have been crippled by injuries.

Woodson has shown himself one of the league's most feared open field runners in his great runbacks. The 49ers may use him on offense and try to spring him in an open field on a trick play or short pass.

Christiansen said also that new fullback Gary Lewis would get plenty of duty Sunday. He carried two times for seven yards in his first 49er appearance last week, but now knows the plays pretty well and could turn out to be a good one. Lewis was once cut by the Prospectors because he could not get his weight under 240. He returned to camp from the United Football League at 230 pounds.

Christiansen announced that Leon Donahue had won back his starting offensive guard position from Mike Magac. Donahue was slowed down the past two weeks by a sore back.

Meanwhile, new defensive safety Charley Britt reported yesterday from Minnesota and was questioned extensively by the 49er coaches as to the Vikings' patterns.

The 180-pound Britt said he was shocked at being cut by Minnesota after starting most of their games. He indicated that personality differences with defensive coach Harry Gilmer might have led to the Vikings' move.

Houston, Boston In AFL Tilt

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Charley Tolar, Houston's 5-foot-6 fullback, who is one of the few men in the world ever to make a living by capping oil fires, needs 41 yards to become a 3,000-yard gainer in the American Football League.

But gaining that much yardage in tonight's Houston-Boston game that kicks off the pro football weekend may prove just as difficult as extinguishing an oil fire.

Tolar, the 27-year-old fullback from Northwest Louisiana, has gained his yardage the hard way in five seasons with the Oilers. He's done it in consistent battering at the middle of the line — his longest run is for 40 yards. And besides that, he may never get to run against Boston.

Houston quarterback George Blanda almost ignored the running game against Buffalo last week and filled the air with a league record 68 passes. Boston also figures to throw, with Babe Parilli right behind Blanda in the number of passes thrown in the league.

Parilli will have favorite target Art Graham, who has been out with an ankle injury, available for the key game. The Patriots, 5-2-1, need a victory to keep up with undefeated Buffalo in the Eastern Division.

The Bills, 8-0, invade New York to meet the Jets while in other Sunday action Western Division leading San Diego is at Denver and Oakland at Kansas City.

In the National League Sunday, Western Division leading Baltimore tackles Chicago and the Bleveland Browns, front runners in the East, take on Washington. Elsewhere, Detroit is at Green Bay, Pittsburgh is at St. Louis, Dallas at New York, Philadelphia at Los Angeles and San Francisco at Minnesota.

San Rafael, Redwood 'C' Cagers Win

San Rafael and Redwood Class C basketball teams scored triumps yesterday in Marin Athletic League action.

San Rafael, led by Steve Durham's 23 points, topped Drake 48-34 on the Bullpups' court. San Rafael (5-4) winds up its season next Monday at Terra Linda.

Redwood ended its season with a 5-5 mark by downing Tamalpais 52-47 on the Giants' court. Bill Green had 24 points and Bruce Meinburger had 14 to lead the Redwood attack. Jesse Page had 14 for Tam.

WEST COAST FOOTBALL

Lead Can't Change

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

West Coast Football readies for more crazy bounces tomorrow yet for once you can be sure which teams will be leading the Pacific Athletic Conference on Monday.

UCLA and Oregon State, the co-leaders with 2-0 PAC records, each entertains an intersectional foe while the other six conference members battle among themselves.

The Uclans play host to the Air Force Falcons while Oregon State battles to provide the coast its first 1964 victory over a Big Ten team at the expense of Indiana.

California plays at Washington with Southern California at Stanford and Washington State at Oregon. The results go a long way in determining which might challenge UCLA and Oregon State for the Rose Bowl assignment.

Southern California must beat Stanford to keep alive its bowl hopes and the Trojans have been hit with injuries to key personnel in recent weeks. They'll count heavily on the passing of Craig Fertig.

Stanford, after dropping three conference games, surprised everyone by knocking off unbeaten Oregon a week ago.

California hopes to riddle the pass defenses of Washington and further the All America hopes of Craig Morton, the Bears' quarterback and No. 2 collegiate passer statistically in the nation.

The Huskies, disappointing most of the year, came to life in the second half a week ago to dump USC 14-13.

Oregon's ace quarterback Bob Berry has nursed injuries most of this week but the Ducks could need his passing to overcome the Cougars of Washington State and their great running back Clancy Williams.

Sophomore Paul Brothers has been the added ingredient to build the 6-1 record for Oregon State which dumped strong Syracuse 31-13 two weeks ago and WSU 24-7 last Saturday.

Oregon State has won six in a row after a 7-3 opening game defeat by Northwestern.

UCLA, after beating California in the final two minutes 25-21, will try to knock down the Air Force with an attack centered on quarterback Larry Zeno who can both run and pass.

The Uclans complete their season facing Washington and USC on successive Saturdays, but the conference schedule does not match them with the Beavers of Oregon State who have Stanford and Oregon remaining as PAC foes.

Milwaukee, Atlanta Or Bank's Braves?

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Milwaukee Braves? Atlanta Braves? Maybe the Bank Braves is more fitting.

President and General Manager John McHale admitted under cross-examination yesterday that the Braves used player contracts as collateral to obtain a $3 million long term loan from the First Wisconsin National Bank of Milwaukee.

The loan was obtained when a Chicago area syndicate headed by Bill Bartholomay, now the club's board chairman, and Tom Reynolds, the executive vice president, bought the Milwaukee franchise two years ago.

Now Bartholomay, Reynolds, McHale & Co. are engaged in a bitter legal fight over the desire to move to Atlanta. Milwaukee County is insisting that the Braves fulfill a contract to play all home games at County Stadium through 1965 and has obtained a state court order temporarly restraining the Braves from moving.

McHale was the only witness on the opening day of a hearing before U.S. District Judge Robert E. Tehan on the Braves' petition to have a federal court take jurisdiction of the legal action. The Braves claim "diversity of citzenship" because the club is a Delaware corporation and its principal business has been conducted in Chicago since Oct. 5.

McHale testifed that Atlanta has offered the Braves a "satisfactory" stadium lease, but he has no knowledge of any written agreement with the Southern city.

Much of the testimony cetered on the executive office move to Chicago, allegedly carried out 16 days before the club's board of directors voted 12-6 to transfer the National League franchise to Atlanta.

McHale noted that Bartholomay, Reynolds and two other members of the Braves "finance committee" live in the Chicago area. He said the committee noted Sept. 14 to move the headquarters.

"There was significance to the move to Chicago," McHale said. "The significance was that I was going to be with my associates who help me and are part of many of our important decisions of our ball club."

McHale admitted that the Braves did not move any furniture or equipment to Chicago and that other front office employes still are working at County Stadium.

U.S. Accepts Cup Challenge By Australia

NEW YORK (AP) — An Australian challenge for the America's Cup in 1967 has been accepted by the New York Yacht Club.

Australia's second Cup challenge, issued after U.S. defender Constellation defeated Britain's Sovereign in September, was accepted yesterday by the Board of Trustees of the N.Y. Yacht Club.

In 1962 America's Weatherly defeated Australian challenger Gretel 4-1 in the best-of-seven-races series.

The 1967 series probably will be held in September off Newport, R.I.

The United States has held the Cup since 1851.

Seals Hockeymen Bomb Vancouver

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Although the San Francisco Seals still are in last place, the rest of the Western Hockey League has fair warning that Bud Poile is coaching again.

The man who has led both Edmonton and San Francisco to league championships returned last night and the Seals romped over the Vancouver Canucks 9-4 in the only league game of the evening.

Considering that the Canucks had beaten the Seals 7-0 and 10-1 the first two times the teams met this season, this was a substantial reversal.

Poile was replaced as coach by forward Nick Mickoski with 15 games left last season. After nine games this season, Poile, who had remained as general manager, in turn replaced Mickoski.

Mickoski also returned against the Canucks. In his first time on the ice this season, he led the Seals' power play and scored a goal and two assists.

"The night belonged to Nick," said Poile afterwards. "He's the guy who made the difference."

Wayne Connelly helped make Poile's return successful with three consecutive goals for a hat trick. Connelly's first goal closed the opening period and brought the Seals a 3-3 tie. The next two at the start of the second period put the Seals ahead to stay.

Hank Bauer Named A.L. Top Pilot

NEW YORK (AP) — Hammerin' Hank Bauer, whose Baltimore Orioles almost nailed down their first American League pennant in a torrid battle with New York and Chicago, was named the circuit's manager-of-the-year today. He won by an overwhelming margin over Al Lopez of the White Sox and Yogi Berra of the victorious Yanks.

Bauer drew 53 votes from among the 83 baseball writers participating in the annual Associated Press poll. Lopez was named on 19 ballots and Berra on eight. Bill Rigney of the Los Angeles Angels collected the other three.

"I'm very flattered," Bauer said at his Kansas City home. "This is quite an honor."

Marin 'Cats Clash With Tam Tonight

Tamalpais tries to get on the winning side and Marin Catholic gridders just try for a league win when the two teams clash tonight at Kentfield starting at 8 o'clock.

Both teams are having their troubles winning, the Tam Indians holding a single win over San Rafael while Marin Catholic has been on the losing end five straight times in Marin Athletic League play this season.

Coach Pete Belden of Tamalpais isn't taking the Wildcats lightly. "Any team deprived that long from winning and then scoring three touchdowns last week is going to be up for this game." Belden is talking about the fact that Marin scored its first touchdowns of the season—three as a matter of fact—last week against Redwood after being shut out in four previous league games.

Belden's hope for his offense rest on the running of Steve Hewett and Alex Robertson. "That Robertson is getting tougher and tougher with each game and is now playing up to the potential that was expected of him this season. He sure ran terrific last week against Novato," Belden added.

Marin, with Prep of the Week Bill Shine leading the attack, would like to win its last game of the season, After an opening practice win against Healdsburg, the Wildcats are 1-6 on the year.

Shine, the amazing quarterback who does everything, should be aided this week by halfback Lu Ercolini who didn't play last week because of a severe sprained ankle.

Coach Chuck Vaughan feels his team "has really come of age. With line protection our boy Shine will be throwing to his favorite target Jim Tupper."

Vaughan is also happy over Tupper. A 6-0 end, Tupper has been plagued with bad ankles but they finally healed last week. It will be the last game of the season for Marin.

Tentative starting lineups:

Novato Vs. Redwood Tomorrow

Novato and Redwood footballers go after each other to break a third place tie in the Marin Athletic League race when they meet tomorrow afternoon at the Hornet field at 2 p.m.

Both teams, with 2-2 league marks, have lost to the two big giants in the league, Drake and Terra Linda.

Coach Marlin Olsen of Novato is hoping for a 7-2 season mark. "With fingers crossed, we hope to win our next two league games and wind up with a 4-2 league record plus the three practice wins for the 7-2 mark. I would like to beat Troppmann (Redwood's coach). It would even our coaching record at an even three wins apiece," the Novato mentor said.

Olsen, when asked to compare this year's team to last year's, which wound up with an over-all 2-7 mark, said he felt this team has seven good players. "Steve Coontz is a fine defensive tackle, John Youngs is great at offensive tackle and Ron Tieche is tops at offensive end, Olsen said.

Redwood's coach Bob Troppmann feels Novato is one of the toughest teams in the league. "Our kids are real high for this game and it's the only reason it'll be a ball game. They're tough and big," Tropp said.

The Giants will have to contain Hornet runner Dick Otis to gain a victory. "He's one of the best runners in the league," Troppmann commented.

Redwood will be going with Scott Murphy at quarterback and Tom Sather and Ken Tucker in the field. Tucker is a fine runner, both up the middle and around the ends, plus his punting has kept Giant opponents deep in their own territory.

The game will be broadcast on KTIM.

Tentative starting lineups:

REDWOOD—le, Bill Kilcoyne; lt, Brian Tobin; c, Dick DeBeaubien; rg, Dave Anderson; lt, Vic Gengler; rt, Frank Gabel; re, Terry Smith; qb, Scott Murphy; lf, Tom Sather; rh, Ken Tucker, fb, Dan Kelly.

Drake Pirates Battle San Rafael Tomorrow

Drake High School puts its undefeated record on the line tomorrow afternoon when the Pirates host San Rafael at Kentfield starting at 2 o'clock.

The Pirates, with a 4-0 mark in the Marin Athletic League, are standing pat with the same offensive and defensive lineups, according to head coach Bob Franceschini.

The head mentor commented on his fine defensive line that has given up 45 points in seven games. The defense includes Bob Edelstein, Lee Jamison, Bill Hickerson, Doug Manuel, Brian Palmer and linebackers Bruce Trimble and Jerry Feikert. "These boys have really done a job. They've stopped the opposition when they had to be stopped," Franceschini said.

Franceschini doesn't feel he'll have to get the team up for this game. "Most of the boys played on the varsity last year (San Rafael defeated Drake 24-0 to tie for the championship) and that game is in their minds."

San Rafael, which played Terra Linda last week and has Novato to play next week (ouch) will rely on the passing of Jay Widmer. "We're going to get the ball up in the air," Bulldog coach Bob Muster said.

Muster praised Joe Cunningham, the gutty end. "He's a fierce competitor without great speed, but has good moves and good hands. What I really like is that both Joe and Widmer are going to be back next year."

The Bulldog coach was fairly happy over last week's showing against T. L. "We hung in there pretty good. It was those penalties that hurt us at the crucial times."

Tentative starting line ups:

Tars Tangle With Shasta Tomorrow

College of Marin's football team leaves today for a Golden Valley Conference scrap with the Shasta College Knights tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock in Redding.

Tar head coach Dick Read feels his boys have a good chance to put a damper on Shasta's homecoming, "if we put together a really good effort." He pointed out Shasta hasn't much of an offense but is very strong on defense. The Knights are winless in three GVC games, but put up a strong battle against powerful Santa Rosa before falling, 7-6.

The Tars are 1-2 in conference play. The lone win was over Yuba, 13-7, a team that nipped Shasta 7-0 last weekend. The trip to Redding will take the Mariners four and one-half hours by bus. The estimated time of arrival back to Marin tomorrow night is 10:30.

The big game of the Golden Valley Conference will be tonight, with Napa hosting the Santa Rosa Bear Cubs. The game should be for the conference title as both teams will enter with 3-0 marks. Santa Rosa will be going after its 14th straight GVC victory, dating back to 1962.

Marin will close out its season Nov. 13 in Santa Rosa.

Two Boxers Win Honors

TORONTO (AP) — The World Boxing Association named Joey Archer, New York middleweight, and Paulie Armstead, Los Angeles lightweight, coboxers of the month for October in its monthly ratings yesterday.

They also were ranked the No. 1 contenders in their divisions.

SAN RAFAEL WARNER TEAM TRIES FOR TIE

San Rafael's Junior Bulldogs will be trying to nab a share of the Marin County Pop Warner Football League championship Sunday when they tangle with the Tamalpais Junior Indians.

The game will be the second half of a doubleheader at the Hamilton Air Force Base football field. The first game, between the Terra Linda Junior Trojans and Novato Junior Hornets, will start at 12:30 p.m., followed by the San Rafael-Tam scrap at 2:30.

Redwood clinched a tie for the title last week with a 32-7 victory over Drake, ending its season at four wins and a tie. San Rafael has a 3-0-1 mark, so a win Sunday will give it a tie for the title.

Arnold Palmer Remains On Top In Golf Winnings

Farewell Parties Honor The Dimitroffs

By MOLLY MARIN

Mill Valley artists Stephen Pope Dimitroff and his wife, Lucienne Bloch Dimitroff, who will be leaving Mill Valley the end of this month, are being entertained by friends at farewell parties.

The Dimitroffs are moving to Gualala in Mendocino County near Anchor Bay, where they will have a larger studio. Mrs. Dimitroff is known for her mosaic work, portraits and illustrations of children's books. Her husband is a painter and both are known for their fresco murals.

Most recent party for the Dimitroffs was a dinner given by Mrs. Ida Geary of Mill Valley. Also a guest of honor was Mrs. Dimitroff's sister, Suzanne Bloch. They are the daughters of the famed composer Ernest Bloch. She was on her way to Los Angeles for concert engagements. A specialist in ancient music, she plays the recorder and the lute, and founded the recorder society.

GUESTS OF honor at several parties starting today are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bond, who with their two children, Catherine and Robert, arrived in Sausalito last week from Bogota, Colombia, after a six weeks' tour of Europe. They are staying at the Alta Mira Hotel. The Bonds lived for many years in Sausalito and went to Bogota in connection with Mr. Bond's work as an engineer with Standard Oil Co.

This afternoon they were guests at a luncheon given in the Belvedere home of Mrs. Mervyn S. Cowen by the members of the sculpture class of the Sausalito Woman's Club, and tonight they will be entertained at a dinner party hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Phillips of Sausalito.

Monday night they will be guests for dinner at the home of the Chester V. Solbergs of Sausalito, where the guest list will include the Warren Zimmers of Sausalito and Little River.

The Bonds will leave for Guatemala Thursday.

MR. AND MRS. Karl Leptien of San Rafael have returned from a three month trip to Germany where they visited members of their family. The Leptiens also were in France and enroute to the West Coast, stopped at the World's Fair and in Illinois and Iowa to visit relatives.

A GROUP OF young married couples—the James Tosos, Larry Baskets, Richard Thompsons, Phil Toepfers and James Millers—hosted a gala costume party on Saturday evening at the San Anselmo Women's Club. Among the unique costumes were Raggedy Ann and Andy, Anthony and Cleopatra, Keystone Cops and Humpty Dumpty. Dancing and a midnight buffet concluded the evening.

ALUMNAE IN A PARTY MOOD

Proceeds from the 5 to 7 p.m. event will provide a campership for a blind child. Mrs. Hugh Paterson is reservations chairman. (Independent-Journal photo)

He is stationed at Williams Air Force Base in Arizona, where he is completing jet pilot training. He is the brother of Marcia Johnson, a freshman at the University of California at Santa Barbara, and the grandson of the late Florence Prichard of Mill Valley.

The couple will be married on Dec. 28 in Mill Valley.

'Crash' Diet May Cause Ill Health

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Diet to lose pounds gradually, not to "crash" diet the body into ill health.

"Although an early weight loss is desirable as an incentive to the dieter, the aim should be to lose only one or two pounds every week," says Dr. Michael H. K. Irwin.

"Crash diets, although sometimes encouraging because they enable a person to lose weight quickly, often makes the person feel weak and are damaging to the body," he said.

"IF THE PERSON abandons his diet, gains weight, and then returns to the diet, the resultant frequent fluctuations of weight can be even more harmful than remaining overweight."

The physician made known his views and those of others in the medical profession in a new publication of the public affairs committee, a non-profit educational organization with headquarters here. Called "Overweight—a problem for Millions," the author says to be specific it's a problem for 25 million persons.

"Conservative estimates" indicate that about 20 million persons in the United States are 10 per cent or more overweight and some five million are at least 20 per cent overweight.

IRWIN IS the medical officer at the United Nations, is a fellow of the Royal Society of Medicine, London, and a member of the Industrial Medical Association.

"In addition to being uncomfortable, overweight is a danger to a person's health", says Irwin "heart disease, high blood pressure, hardening of the arteries, diabetes, osteoarthritis (the kind of arthritis occurring with older people) and many other conditions all occur more often in the overweight person."

The physician cited one extensive study by an insurance company which concluded that if a middle-aged person is 10 pounds above the normal weight for his or her height and build, the danger of death is increased by eight per cent; 20 pounds overweight, by 18 per cent; 30 pounds overweight, 28 per cent; and 50 pounds too heavy, 56 per cent.

IRWIN SAID that almost all cases of overweight are caloric-intake caused—"if the energy value of the food consumed is equivalent to the energy the body uses, weight remains constant."

He pooh-poohs the often heard comment that "overweight runs in the family." It's the body structure that's inherited, not the pounds, he says.

"A MUCH more important factor is the family's eating habits," says the physician. "If a child of overweight parents eats the same food his parents eat, in the same amounts and with the same frequency, he too may become overweight."

To Irwin the proper way to lose pounds is to cut the caloric intake, exercise moderately each day because exercise tones the muscles and aids circulation.

Buffet Supper To Follow Delta Zeta Theater Party

Members of the Marin County Delta Zeta Alumnae chapter will entertain their husbands at a theater party followed by a buffet supper on Nov. 14.

At 8:30 p.m. they will attend a performance of "Sunday in New York" given by the Ross Valley Players at the Marin Art and Garden Center. Afterward they will have a buffet supper at the home of Mrs. Charles Hamilton, 75 Kensington Road, San Anselmo. Mrs. Hamilton will be assisted by Mesdames C. P. Seymour of Ross and John P. Daly of San Anselmo, and chapter president, Mrs. George R. Mallory of Terra Linda will assist with receiving guests.

Mrs. Frank Gloistein of San Anselmo is reservations chairman.

The chapter recently received word that it was awarded an "excellent" rating for its press book and publicity and public relations program at this year's national convention of the sorority. Mrs. Guy H. Gale of Sleepy Hollow was public relations chairman, and Mrs. James Saunders of San Anselmo was historian and press book chairman.

Today is Friday, Nov. 6, the 311th day of 1964 with 55 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning stars are Jupiter, Mars and Venus. The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

American band leader John Philip Sousa was born on this day in 1854.

On this day in history:

In 1860, Abraham Lincoln was elected president of the United States.

In 1869, the first formal intercollegiate football game was played between Princeton and Rutgers at New Brunswick, N.J.

In 1900, William McKinley was elected president.

In 1953, U.S. Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell charged former President Harry Truman had named Dexter White to head the International Monetary Fund knowing he was "a Russian spy."

A thought for the day — Abraham Lincoln said: "There is no grievance that is a fit object of redress by mob law."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Losses Are Often Due To Repeated Bad Play In Game

"Losses at bridge are not due to lack of brilliance," writes Gerald Abrahams in "Brains in Bridge," a thought-provoking and beautifully written book.

"The main cause of loss at bridge is inadequacy in the face of the not very difficult."

Opening lead — ♣ 9

"The declarer who misplayed this hand," writes Abrahams, "did so by letting the first club run to his tenace. How very many contracts are lost on the first trick! He could not reenter his hand three times, and was defeated."

BEST PLAY

There's no question about South's best play. He should take the first trick with dummy's ace of clubs and return the king of hearts. He plans to ruff three hearts in dummy and wants to save entries to his hand until after he has led the first round of hearts.

The rest of the play is then pretty easy. East takes the ace of hearts and returns the queen of spades to South's ace.

South ruffs a heart in dummy, returns to his hand by finessing with the jack of clubs, ruffs another heart in dummy and draws one round of trumps with the ace to guard against a doubleton club in the West hand.

CONTINUES RUFF-OUT

South then leads a club to his king and ruffs his last heart in dummy. By this time he has managed to take eight tricks and still has Q-J-6 of trumps to assure the ninth trick.

Even after South made the bad play of letting the first club run to his hand he could still make the contract if he kept his head. He should still play to ruff hearts in dummy.

South leads a heart at the second trick, wins the spade return and ruffs a heart in dummy.

CLUB TO RUFF

He gets to his hand with a club to ruff another heart, cashes the ace of clubs and leads a spade.

By this time declarer has taken six tricks and should manage to take three more with A-7 of trumps in dummy and Q-J-6-2 of trumps in his own hand.

The important point about a hand of this kind is to play the doubler for four good trumps and most of the missing high cards. It's hard to go wrong if you play for the cards to be thus placed.

DAILY QUESTION

As dealer, you hold:
♠ A 7
♥ J 10 5 2
♦ Q J 6 2
♣ K J 2

What do you say?

Answer: Pass.

You have 12 points in high cards and 1 point for the doubleton. An opening bid is possible, but not mandatory. You should pass because you have only one and one-half quick tricks and no particularly good suit.

Winnie Visits The Other Club

LONDON (AP) — Bitterly cold weather couldn't keep Sir Winston Churchill from his favorite soup.

The former prime minister, who will be 90 years old Nov. 30, was helped from his car and into a wheel chair at London's Savoy Hotel for a meeting Thursday night of the exclusive The Other Club.

Besides the soup, the exclusive dining club's menu features oysters, fish, roast beef and a cheese souffle.

Churchill and Lord Birkenhead founded the club in 1911.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Kennedy Profiles Planned On NBC

By RICK du BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—The NBC-TV drama series "Profiles in Courage," based on the book by the late President John F. Kennedy and withheld by agreement until after the national elections, will finally make its debut Sunday.

Royalties from the series will go to charity, in line with a policy established by Kennedy, whose approval of the television version of his Pulitzer Prize-winning book made the project possible. There will be 26 filmed one-hour programs, some from the biographies of the book, with the remainder concerning other Americans whose stories were consistent with its theme.

NBC yesterday announced "unprecedented sales" of the series in Europe and the Far East, even before its premiere. It has been bought by Ireland, England, Germany, Italy, Sweden, Norway, Finland, Denmark, Switzerland, Austria, Australia and the Philippines. In addition, says NBC, Poland, Czechosiovakia, Yugoslavia, Portugal, Belgium and The Netherlands have expressed "very serious intentions to buy the series."

Sunday's premiere episode is entitled "The Oscar W. Underwood Story," and stars Sidney Blackmer as a southern senator who must decide whether to accept the powerful and pivotal support of the Ku Klux Klan at the 1924 Democratic National Convention in his bid for the presidential nomination.

Two weeks from Sunday, which will mark one year to the day that Kennedy was assassinated, NBC-TV will pre-empt "Profiles in Courage" for a one-hour memorial tribute to the slain chief executive — "rather than a political study . . . an essay on a human being." NBC announced last week that 24 countries had bought this program.

On the same Memorial day, Nov. 22, ABC-TV will also present a one-hour tribute, aimed at being "an intimate portrait" as well as a study of Kennedy's public life. In addition, on Nov. 22, ABC-TV's "Directions '65" series, in cooperation with the National Council of Catholic Men" plans another half-hour broadcast dedicated to Kennedy, written by Pulitzer Prize-winning historian Paul Horgan and entitled "A Figure of the Possible."

CBS-TV, meanwhile, has scheduled its Kennedy tribute for Nov. —. Those participating in the one-hour program include many of the late president's associates, among them Dean Rusk, Adlai Stevenson, Averell Harriman, Ted Sorenson, Pierre Salinger, Allen Dulles and vice president-elect Hubert H. Humphrey. Humphrey also is scheduled to appear on NBC-TV's "Sunday" series this weekend.

Also this month, another former Democratic president, Harry S. Truman, will have a half-hour series about his years in the White House start its broadcasts on a widely-syndicated basis.

A post-election commentary by Mort Sahl on Los Angeles' new educational television station this week was canceled by the comedian when he learned he would have to tape the program so it could be approved in advance. The station felt the election was so sensitive a matter that "we could not broadcast this program without first looking at it." Sahl said he had been asked to do the show live, for no salary and as a community service, and that he was disturbed "for the viewers who are looking to this station as an honest reflection of opinions and educational service." A station executive said he understood Sahl's consternation.

The Beatles, Britain's fearsome foursome, are such hot ratings prospects that they have caused a network squabble. First, ABC-TV announced it would present The Beatles in a taped one-hour variety show on Nov. 15. Then CBS-TV announced that on Nov. 13 it would present a one-hour "filmed entertainment documentary" entitled "The Beatles in America," narrated by Carol Burnett and following the mop-tops on their tour of the United States last winter. Now ABC-TV has threatened to take action against CBS-TV if any entertainment performances are included in the documentary (which they are) on the grounds that ABC-TV had been promised there would be no such performances. At last report, CBS-TV was saying it intended to go right ahead with no change in plans.

MARIN FILM FARE

Western Pictures On Screen Around County

By LES DARD

Here's what's in store for the Marin area moviegoer this weekend:

TAMALPAIS THEATER

"Rio Conchos," is now showing.

Richard Boone plays an ex-Confederate, a man who harbors intense hatred for Indians because they murdered his family. We see him in jail alongside a Mexican killer bound for the gallows, Tony Franciosa.

The Cavalry sends Cap. Stuart Whitman and his sergeant, Jim Brown to recover a shipment of stolen rifles before they get to the Indians.

Boone volunteers to track them down if they will pardon Franciosa. Whitman agrees.

The bad guy of the story is an ex-Confederate officer Edmond O'Brien who is inciting the Indians to fight against the United States.

RAFAEL THEATER

Yul Brynner dons chaps and guns for his starring role in "Invitation to a Gunfighter." It opens Sunday.

Brynner plays a paid-for-killing gunslinger. He is called to a small town in New Mexico to rid the community of a former Confederate soldier who has become a thorn in the side of the town's banker.

As the story develops, it appears most of the community has been deeply scarred by the Civil War and its aftermath, and that hidden tensions are coming to the fore.

MOTOR MOVIES

"The Cardinal" is now showing.

Tom Tryon plays Father Stephen Fermoyle, son of a Boston-Irish motorman who rises to be a prince of the church.

Troubles begin soon after ordination, when his sister—Carol Lynley—falls in love with a Jewish boy.

NOVATO THEATER

It is a delightful rags-to-riches story. Through marriage to Johnny Brown, who made it rich in the mining business, Molly Tobin enters Denver society—only to be snubbed.

So she and Johnny head for Europe and the polish it can give them. She returns with her own court of European nobility.

The co-feature is "Tomahine."

101 DRIVE-IN

Richard Burton plays a discredited minister in the soul-searching "Night of the Iguana," now playing.

He is reduced to guiding Mexican tours, and his present one includes Sue Lyon, a teen-ager who throws herself at him, and a spinster obsessed with the girl and jealous of Burton.

At a rundown resort owned by newly-widowed Ava Gardner the inner conflicts of all are exposed.

Deborah Kerr as an "instant picture" type artist and her poet grandfather act as a stabilizing force on the group.

SEQUOIA THEATER

Jules Verne's suspense-filled science-fiction novel "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea," as translated into film by Walt Disney starts Sunday.

James Mason plays Captain Nemo who cruises the world in his fantastic invention, the submarine Nautilus.

Such a stir does he make that an expedition is put out, including Paul Lukas, Peter Lorre and Kirk Douglas, to kill the "sea monster."

Also featured is "So Dear to My Heart."

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Back with us again is "Dr. Strangelove," a satirical depiction of the end of the world, nuclear bomb style.

Peter Sellers does triple duty. (1) He is aide to the demented general who sent out SAC bombers against the Russians. (2) He's the U. S. president who is trying to bring the planes back before they doom the world. And (3) he plays Dr. Strangelove, the weird ex-Nazi scientist.

Co-featured is "The Long Ships."

FAIRFAX THEATER

Held over is the superlative "Becket," starring Peter O'Toole as Henry II of 12th Century England, and Richard Burton as his Saxon companion and advisor, Thomas Becket.

The young king has little time for the responsibilities of the kingdom.

After trouble with the Church, Henry names Becket Archbishop of Canterbury. However, Becket acquires religion, and Henry soon realizes that he is out of his control.

LARK THEATER

Now on screen are two foreign films.

The first is "Arturo's Island," film version of Elso Morante's sensitive novel, which took first place in the 1962 San Sebastian Film Festival.

Taking place on an island in the Bay of Naples, it is the story of the trials and hardships in the life of an almost 16-year-old boy.

The second feature is "Two Are Guilty," starring Tony Curtis in his first mystery role.

French police are chasing two men for the kidnapping and murder of a child, but instead find three, each claiming he is innocent and the others guilty.

FOR RAFAEL—Yul Brynner and Janice Rule are shown in a scene from the western film, "Invitation to a Gunfight" at the Rafael Theater.

U.S. Lofts Explorer

WALLOPS ISLAND, Va. (AP)—The space agency launched a cylindrical satellite into orbit today and promptly designated it Explorer 23.

Scientists turned on all the experimental equipment aboard the 8-foot-long, 2-foot diameter spacecraft by radio command signals from the ground, and reported that all were operating successfully.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said 2½ hours after the launching that it had confirmed that the 295-pound satellite was in orbit and gathering information on meteoroids in space.

Paintings Shown

Mrs. Joan Anderson, artist of 1300 Kaehler Street, Novato, has paintings in two galleries in Marin County. Her oil paintings of landscapes and seascapes are being shown through this weekend at the Torrance Gallery in San Anselmo and the Shoestring Gallery in Novato.

Perry Como Films Vatican Yule Show

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Perry Como today filmed a Christmas show that will be shown on U.S. television screens Christmas Eve. He led a fleet of Italian trucks into the Vatican gardens for a scene featuring the Sistine Chapel choir against the background of the dome of St. Peter's.

Prop. 10 Finally Approved

SACRAMENTO (AP) — After a see-saw battle, California voters finally approved Proposition 10 on Tuesday's ballot, late returns showed yesterday.

Proposition 10 was the largely technical measure to abolish the state school lands fund, which drew its money from the sale of federal lands granted to the state, and put such money in the state general fund in the future.

The measure trailed at the start of vote counting, then went ahead, fell behind and finally emerged with a yes vote majority.

With 31,357 precincts of 31,498 reporting, figures from the secretary of state's office showed the yes vote on Proposition 10 at 2,793,039 to 2,676,046 no votes.

Ends Training

Charles M. Evans, son of Mrs. Hazel H. Evans of Bolinas, has completed basic training at the Recruit Training Command, Naval Training Center, San Diego.

It will be the second marriage for Spillane and the first for Miss Malinou. The wedding date and place were not announced.

Branch Library In Novato Adds Book Service, Films

The Novato branch of the Marin County Library has improved its service by adding a new book service and eight-milimeter films, according to Mrs. Marjorie Leech, branch librarian.

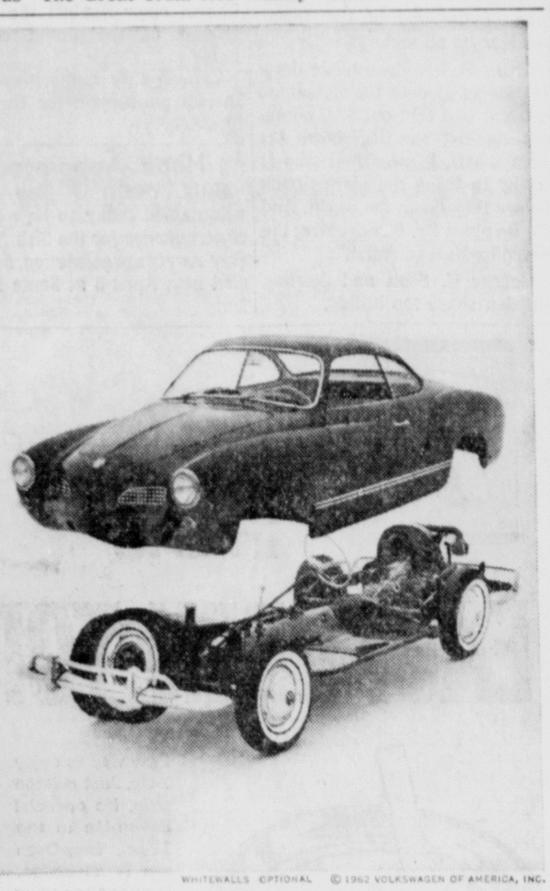
The library has rented 200 books from the McNaughton book service at a cost of $80 per month. Each month, approximately 20 of these will be exchanged for 20 new titles, Mrs. Leech said.

"This will give the branch library more new titles and more than one copy of the current best sellers, she said.

The new eight-millimeter films include travel films, adventure such as "The Great Train Robbery," educational, and other films designed for pure entertainment. The library has subscribed to the North Bay Cooperative Library catalogue of 16-millimeter sound films for some time, Mrs. Leech reported.

"However, we have about reached the limit of our services in this building. We cannot expand much until we get larger quarters," she added.

The Citizen Committee for Improved Library Services has proposed a county servives district be established to construct a library building on a site off Rowland Boulevard which has been offered to Marin County by Harry Heifetz.



WHITEWALLS OPTIONAL © 1962 VOLKSWAGEN OF AMERICA, INC.

Underneath it all it's a Volkswagen.

The Karmann Ghia has a low-slung, racy-looking body: sloping hood, remarkably clean, sculptured lines.

The car is built with plenty of good-old-fashioned hand-work. (Fenders and hoods and door frames are welded and smoothed by hand.)

Yet, the Karmann Ghia has VW's engine. (And VW's chassis and transmission and suspension.) This means you get VW's legendary economy: about 32 m.p.g. And VW's air-cooling: no boiling or freezing. And VW's excellent traction: through mud, ice and snow. And VW's service: no $40 tuneups, no $100 carburetors.

Top to bottom, the Ghia is built to last. It looks like a custom made car because it's designed like one. It acts like a Volkswagen because it is one.

Just look underneath the rear bonnet.
